BROWN EDGE WAFER ROLL is a quick, delicious dessert. Take 1 cup heavy cream, one-half cup instant cocoa mix, dash of salt, 23 sweet, long wafers, pour cream into chilled bowl, add cocoa and salt, whip until cream begins to hold shape. Spread cream on brown-edged wafers and put together in stacks of four or five. Lay stacks on edge on platter to make one long row with cookies and whipped cream alternating. Spread outside stack with remaining whipped cream and chill two to three hours. Garnish with shredded cocoanut. Slice diagonally to serve

Milk Control, Liquor And Pensions Due for Action

The deadline for getting signatures is July. Most of the eight measures will make the ballot, because it isn't much trouble to get that many signatures when one or more large s organized groups are among the sponsors. The old age pension quarrel, which comes up every election, will center on efforts by the old age pension groups to repeal two laws. These laws let the Public claims against estates of deceased pensioners, and make relatives who are financially able contribute to the support of the aged. These pension groups detest both laws.

These pension groups detest both-laws. Consumers groups in Portland and other cities, having failed in the 1961 Legislature, will carry their milk control fight to the peo-ple. Their initiative would abolish milk control. Oregon's Anti-Llouor League will mit control. Oregon's Anti-Liquor League will instative calling for prohibition. An initiative to prevent daylght saving time is being circulated by the Oregon Farmers Union, with the support of the state Grange. Oregon now can have fast time only by proclamation of the Gover-nor. He did precisim it last sum-

Library Club Bridge Tea Plan

Both the bridge and tea commit-tees for the annual Library Club bridge-tea are busy making ar-rangements. February 2 is the date chosen for the benefit bridge-tea to be held in the Willard Hotel. Mrs. Archie James, chairman of the bridge committee reports that bridge, or whatever card game participants, care to pins, will begin at 1:30 p.m. Players are asked to bring a card table cover and cards.

and cards, The lea committee, headed by Mrs. George Bosserdet, plans to start serving at 3:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded at that time. Library Club's Case Benefit Fund will receive the proceeds from this social event. The fund is used to provide tonsilectomies for children
