Church Raps Ambassador To Holy See

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman has been advised by a Protestant churchman that his insistence on sending an ambassador to the Vatican will bring him defeat at the polls if he seeks reelection.

This advice came Thursday night from the Rev. Carl McIntire of Collingwood, N. J., president of the International Council of Christian Churches.

He told a Bible-carrying rally, estimated to number 4,000, that "all the unions there are can't elect" Mr. Truman now.

The President told his news conference Thursday he would go ahead with his plan to name a full-fledged ambassador to the Holy See.

The day-long Protestant rally, sponsored by the American Council of Christian Churches, unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that "so long as we live, we will resist with all our strength the sending of any diplomatic representative to the Vatican."

The resolution said the church and state must avoid "trespassing" on one another's domain.

"We shall as individual citizens work for the defeat at the polls of any man or any party which is disposed to undermine the constitution," it said.

A council spokesman told newsmen those at the Constitution hall rally came from 33 states plus the District of Columbia. The council—claiming a membership of two million persons—has 14 affiliated denominations, all relatively small groups or dissident factions split off from major denominations.

Old Trouper Dies At 68

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Polly Moran, famed comedy team mate of the late Marie Dressler, died of a heart ailment Friday at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. She was 68.

Miss Moran, who entered films as a 1915 Mack Bennett bathing girl, was stricken late last autumn at the Laguna Beach home where she had lived since 1944.

Her physician, Dr. Arthur L. Kobl, reported that she received the last rites of the Catholic Church earlier this week. She died shortly after midnight.

The actress retired from screen and stage in 1940 and made a brief comeback in 1949, when she played a part in "Adam's Rib."

Pastor Gone, Film Slated

The film "Like a Mighty Army" is to be shown at Hope Lutheran Church, Sunday, 11 a.m. The film is being substituted for a sermon.

The Rev. M. R. Anderson will be away, participating in dedication of the new United Lutheran Seminary at Berkeley.

The film, according to the Rev. Anderson, "tells the story of a congregation that ventured in faith . . . It is of special interest because it portrays the birth of a new congregation . . . Just what is taking place with us now." The new Berkeley seminary will be the first Lutheran seminary west of Nebraska.

In the Rev. Anderson's absence, Hope Lutheran will be in charge of the Pre-committee headed by Ivan Larson.
