LIBRARY CLUB BENEFIT TEA

Hearts and flowers will reign over this year's library club bridge tea to be held next Saturday afternoon in the Willard hotel. Committees are now completing details for the annual affair with the Valentine motif.

Bridge and other card games will begin at 1:30 p.m. Players are asked to bring cards and card table covers. Working on the bridge committee are Mrs. Archie James, chairman, Mrs. G. C. Motley, Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Brady Narvey, Mrs. Warren Bennett, Mrs. John Baker, and Mrs. E. H. Moore.

Prizes will be awarded at 3:30 p.m. with a group of the younger set assisting, including Carolyn Boyd, Julie Harnden, Sheila Adler, Jean Adams, Susan Peak, Marilyn Miller, Sharon Gienger, Gail Nerseith, and Sheryl Snell. Tea is to be served shortly after 3:30. Mrs. George Bossardet is tea chairman and is assisted by Mrs. Frank Tarr and Mrs. Lyle Rothenberger.

Library club presents the bridge-tea each year as a highlight of the spring social season to raise funds for their Case Benefit project.

Those attending will help make it possible for many children to have performed needed tonsilectomies.

Individual or table reservations are being taken by Mrs. Warren Bennett at 4225 or Mrs. Archie James at 2-3247.

If you add celery leaves, a slice of onion, a bay leaf, a few cloves and peppercorns to the salted water in which you cook shrimp you can strain the liquid and use it as a stock for a sauce to serve with the shrimp or other fish. One or two cups of water is plenty in which to cook a pound of shrimp.

THE ENGAGEMENT of their daughter Jean Marie, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovell, 1405 Upham, to James Dobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Dobson, Eugene. Both are students at the University of Oregon, from which Jean Marie will be graduated this June. An early summer wedding is planned. Photo by Guderian
