The Pelicans beat Roseburg, 51-41, Saturday night to add to Friday night's 44-28 win.

After a sec-saw first quarter, Roseburg grabbed the lead late in the opening frame and slayed alwad until half time when the Indians held a squeaky 23-21 lead.

Coach Paul McCall called on flu-weakened Ralph Carroll and Jack Horton late in the second quarter. The return of the regulars perced up the Pelican five.

The Pels were much improved over their shody Friday night showing—but there'll have to be even more improvement if they're to pass Medford, very solidy now in the district driver's seat, in what promises to be a battle right down to the finish line.

SPLITS

The Pelicans have split in two district series to date. Any more splits could be disastrous. It's a large order for the Pelicans, precampaign favorites, a definite up-high buttles that could well go up to the finish whistle.

As sen the Pels insalty pushed the right button on their fast-break attack in the third period Saturday night, they build a 41-32 third quarter lead.

But Roseburg closed it to 42-39 carly in the fourth, Then Pence and Barron poured the gas to a rally that gave the Pels a comfortable 19-point lead.
