"Darkness At Noon," a dramatic story that encompasses the rule of the Russian Tzarist Regime will be presented in Mills Auditorium, Monday night, Feb. 4 under auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club. A Civic Drama Guild presentation, the play took New York by storm and is bringing an outstanding cast to Klamath Falls.

Ivanhoff will be played by Loyal T. Lucas. His stage history goes back to the days of silent movies when he played with Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Buster Keaton, Clara Bow and Gloria Swanson.

Allan Gruber who will play Gletkin started his career in the theater at the famous Cleveland Playhouse, later has been with the Pasadena Playhouse and has played everything from "The Monk" in "Oliver Twist" to "Charles" in Noel Coward's "Blythe Spirit."

Norman Beim, (No. 402) is also a writer and producer as well as an actor.

Peter Thompson (No. 404) has a long and important list of credits in the theater, in television and in radio.

Richard Kuss (Guard) received his B.A. in Dramatics from Ithaca College, N.Y. has been seen on Canadian tour in "Native Son" and last summer in "Dear Ruth."

A very fine time was done by the members of the Latin Club today. The group sponsored an all-school matinee dance, the proceeds of which they gave to the March of Dimes and to the Red Cross drive.

Attendance was not compulsory. For admission was ten cents, but a large group did participate. Those not wishing to attend remained in their sixth period class, as the affair was held at 3:10 in the girls' gym.

America's Great Non-Secret Weapon
 The telephone—our nation's nerve system—serves in many ways

Every telephone in America is a weapon for our defense. And these are not weapons yet to be built. They are here—more than four million of them in the West alone. Behind them is a force of men and women, thoroughly trained, well-equipped and eager to get on with any job the nation requires.

Important as it is, the telephone itself is but one of the communications services we provide. The great nerve system of lines and cables and radio relay, built primarily for your telephone calls, has been adapted to serve in many, many ways. And perhaps never before have these services been so important to all the nation.

In military centers the telephone is hard at work helping organize and direct our forces. It's saving minutes and hours and days in defense production plants. It's on the job nearly everywhere today uniting the strength of our millions of people. There are more telephones at work in America than in all the rest of the world. And you can be sure they can be counted on to do their full part—always.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

Here's one great national asset which is still low in price. For telephone rates, on the average, are up less than half as much as the cost of living—a good buy in any budget... your home's or your nation's.

Ship-to-shore radio connects telephones on land with ships in harbors and at sea.
Radio relay carries telephone calls and television across the continent.
Overseas service links America's telephones with most of the world.
Mobile telephones bring service to trucks, ambulances and other vehicles.
Air raid warnings are carried to defense centers over special telephone lines.
