DEVELOFMENTS among the big boys of fistic row seem to hint at another reason Jack Hurley anubbed the International Boxing Club's offer to Harry Matthews for a light-heavyweight title fight with Champion Joe Maxim.

Hurley wants the big prize, the heavyweight crown.

And Jeraey Joe Walcott, the heavyweight crown.

And Jeraey Joe Walcott, the heavyweight champion, seems to favor a title fight with Matthews more than tiffs with either Ezzard Charles or Rocky Marciano.

The reason seems evident:

Walcott will probably be fighting for the last time when he puts his title on the line.

It's safe to say that Matthews,
