Women Study At Meeting

The Klamath League of Women Voters meeting Jan. 23 at the Pelican party room discussed the problems of state legislative apportionment.

Discussed were these questions: Why is the 1916 census used as the basis for apportionment today? Is population the best basis for apportionment? Should we support the proposed amendment to the state constitution which would require the supreme court to re-apportion the legislative district? Four maps of Oregon were posted with colored lines indicating present and proposed senate and house legislative districts. Mrs. Hal Ogle led the discussion and made several suggestions: (1) Zone the more populous districts so voters can know their representatives instead of voting a long list of names. (2) Limit the number of counties and the number of square miles in any one district to give less populous areas just representation. (3) Increase the number of senators so representation could be increased in populous areas without taking away any in other parts of the state. (4) Give publicity to the problem so people will insist that the legislature do the job of reapportionment as planned by the fathers of our constitution.

NO LAUNDRY MIX-UP
If father's and son's clothes get mixed up in the family laundry, you can solve the problem easily. Mark each person's initial in an inconspicuous place on his clothing, using a good ballpoint ink that will not wash out.

Mark Table Linens at Home
To avoid large, ugly laundry markings on your fine table linens, put your own initials on them in an inconspicuous spot. Use a good quality ballpoint ink for the marking, so the ink will not smear or wash out.

Mrs. Casey Stengel Puts On Blue Bonnet - Scores A Hit!

"There's never a doubt—BLUE BONNET Margarine always leads the league in our house," says Mrs. Casey Stengel, wife of the noted baseball manager. You, too, will love the delicate, sunny-sweet flavor BLUE BONNET adds to bread, vegetables, any food you love! And don't forget that BLUE BONNET gives your family real old-fashioned nourishment. No other spread for bread is richer in year-round Vitamin A nutrition! What's more, you save up to 40¢ a pound when you get BLUE BONNET instead of the high-priced spread for bread! So buy BLUE BONNET and enjoy! "all 3"—Flavor! Nutrition! Econom-e-e!
