School Vote Set Feb. 15

LAKEVIEW — Voters of School District No. 7 will vote on two matters when they go to the polls Feb. 15. The board this week called a second election in which the voters will be asked for permission to sign a long-term agreement for use of the Youth Center for kindergarten classes.

The other matter on which voters will ballot will be the $270,000 bond issue for construction of a new school building. The voting on both matters will be at the cafeteria in the Central School from 2 to 8 p.m. on Friday, February 15.

The J. T. McDonald-Truman Collins Trust Fund has agreed to expend the sum of $15,500 in addition to and altering the Youth Center to provide two kindergarten rooms. The figure is the school board's estimate of cost.

ROADS GOOD

SALEM (AP) — All Oregon highways are either bare or sanded, the State Highway Commission said Friday.

Warm rains melted most of the snow off mountain roads, although the Commission said a few of them had spots of ice.

of the wrestling matches which were held the last 45 minutes of school. The matches featured our boys against the Grants Pass team.

Despite sickness and warnings to postpone the game, the Pelicans started off bright and early this morning to meet the Ashland Grizzlies on the Ashland home court.

The team members were given a rousing send-off in Pelican court this morning at 8:25 by the student body.

Games can be heard tonight and tomorrow night over KFJL. The KU freshman and wildcats will meet Dorris in a double-header basketball game tomorrow night on Pelican court at 7:00 and 8:00.

Water Content Of Snow Said High

LAKEVIEW — Snow cover and water content at the Strawberry Summit measuring point are about twice this year what they were a year ago, it was reported by Ranger Don Peters who makes the annual measurements there.

Peters said he went to Strawberry Jan. 29 and found 45 inches of snow with 13.98 inches of water content.

A year ago, the measurement was 25 inches of snow and 6.4 inches water content.
