Grains Lose, But

Trend Holds Up

CHICAGO IP — Grains had to absorb a lot of selling on the board of trade Friday. They didn't do it without giving up some price ground, but the market acted much better than in Thursday's very weak session.

With dealings active, corn and oats sank to new lows on the current decline. They recovered part of the loss toward the close, Wheat acted better than feed grains, helped by a little mill buying. Soybeans were quite weak much of the day.

Western Oregon — Windy with showers and partial clearing Fri-day; mostly cloudy with rain Fri-day night and Saturday. Highs both US Democracy Irish Dr. James Millar told Klamath Palls Kiwaniaus at yesterday's Willard luncheon that America and democracy is the bright spot in the world's future. Speaking in Irish overtones, the professional lecturer said the glory of democracy is that genius may break out anywhere. Dr. Millar is on tour for the Good Citizeuship Foundation, a privately endowed lectureship. His home is in Port.

Foundation, a privately endowed lectureship. His home is in Port-lectureship. His home is in Portland.

Calling for a change in the minds and hearts of people, Dr. Millar asserted that "too many folks, instead of pushing the cart, have gotten into it."

He called for the recovery of self-reliance among the people, the recovery of self-reliance among the people, the recovery of self-central, self respect and a return to self sacrifice.

He noted that in the past capitalists imposed deeply on the laborers Now, he said, unions are what capitalists were.

He warned against the break-down of the family unit.

"You cannot," he said, "build a mation on broken homes."

He noted that in 150 years of war the one millionth American was killed, two, he said.

"We'll not have peaca." he went on, "while half the world starves to death as the other half stuffs liself to death." to death as the other half stuffs itself to death."

The doctor spoke yesterday morning at KUHS, and scheduled other lectures while here.

Soil Vote Set Monday

Landowners of the Eastern Klamath County area will move to the polls Monday in an election to determine whether for not the boundaries of the Langell Valley Soil Conservation District will be extended to include another 750,000 acres of lands.

The district, as it now stands, includes some 125,000 acres within its boundaries.

Polling times have been set from 12 to 6.p.m. at the Bly hotel, Bly, and the Horsefly Irrigation District Office, Bonanza.

But No Fire There was smoke and fire at 4121 Altamont Dr., home of Walter Cray, shortly before 10 a.m. Fri-day. But Suburban firemen didn't unreel any hore.
The fire—a hot one according to Fire Chief Buster Gordon—was in a garage stove and smoke and sparks were coming out a chim-ney.

Gordon said a neighbor of the Crays, about a block down the street, saw the smoke and sparks and called the fire department.

Supt. John MacDonald, Fremont National Forest, reported late to-day skiing conditions at Warner Canyon were "fair", and at present plans are to schedule the tow for operation tomorrow and Sunday. DENIAL
