MARY ELLA McAULIFFE RECENT BRIDE AT MERRILL

White chrysanthemums, pink carnations and lighted white tapers were the background for the exchange of marriage vows Jan. 19, between Mary Ella (Molly) McAuliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McAuliffe of Malin and William J. O'Keefe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Keefe, 335 Pacific Terrace.

The ten o'clock double ring morning ceremony, in St. Augustine Church, Merrill was read by Father Phelan.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of heavy eggshell satin with princess lines and a square, scalloped neckline. The full skirt ended in a court train, and complementing her gown she wore matching satin slippers. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a bonnet shaped cap of satin and lace. She carried a single white orchid on a white prayer book. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The traditional blue garland worn and she carried a handkerchief which was brought from France after World War I, by her uncle John McCulley. Her something borrowed was her veil, which belonged to the bridegroom's sister. She carried a lucky penny in her shoe.

Maid of honor, Martha McAuliffe sister of the bride, wore a gown of chartreuse green satin and lace, styled with princess lines. With the gown, in matching colors, she wore lace mitts, cap, and satin slippers. Her bouquet was of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Jim Sullivan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was best man and ushers were Charles Cheyne and Larry Pickett.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McAuliffe chose a navy blue ensemble with pink accessories and wore pink rosebuds at her shoulder. Mrs. O'Keefe wore a brown suit with darker brown accessories and wore a corsage of Tallman rosebuds.

A reception at the Merrill Recreation Hall followed the ceremony. The three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom in a silver bell, and garlanded with pink rosebuds and white carnations, the linen covered table. After the new Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe shared the first slice, the cake was served by Mrs. Anita Stephens. Assisting her was Barbara McCulley and Nora Hawkins, cousins of the bride.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Zena Lucas and Dorothy Saunders. Pouring at the coffee urn were Mrs. John McCulley, aunt of the bride, and assisting was Mrs. Bill Saunders, and Mrs. Edna Hood. In attendance at the gift table were Mrs. Katherine Chamberlain and passing the guest book was

Order DeMolay Installation Of Officers

DeMolay installation of officers, Jan. 24 in the Masonic Temple was an open installation which over 150 guests attended.

The program following the installation ceremony included violin solos by Wayne Angel, vocal selections by Harriet Mueller, both accompanied by Ruth Lobough at the piano.

John Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Shaw, Altamont Dr., gave a humorous reading with a very professional delivery necessitating pauses for applause.

After the program, refreshments were served to the guests by a committee headed by Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nersteth, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mathews, and Mr. and Mrs. George Fawcett.

Mrs. Nersteth is the new "mom" to the organization and she makes arrangements for refreshments and otherwise assists with social functions. Dancing followed the refreshments.

It should be noted that the state DeMolay convocation is scheduled for April 18-19 in Klamath Falls. Marvin Nersteth is general chairman. OTI will be the scene of much of the convocation activities. Many of the delegates will be housed at OTI as well as homes, hotels and so forth.

Former Resident Holiday Visitor

Mrs. W. D. Robinson (Minnie Barnum) had her sister as a house guest over the holidays. ### CDA Dinner At Sacred Heart

Post party comments from the 120 Catholic Daughters and their escorts indicated last Monday's pot luck dinner was a genuine social success.

The potluck buffet meal was served in the Sacred Heart parish hall at 6:30 p.m. Tables were arranged conveniently close to the buffet center, thus making successive trips for refills pleasantly inconspicuous.

The culinary favorite of each Daughter was proudly produced for consumption and discussion. Much of both ensued. Several hours of social games completed the evening's fun.

Credit for the entire evening goes to the general chairman, Mrs. Garmel Raffetto and her small committee, which included Edna Gasperini, Vera Mullins, Dorothy Gerlach, Laura Walker and Josephine Reginato. Mrs. Saverina Smith from Ortech is slated as head of the February Catholic Daughters activities.

NEW RESIDENTS—are Dr. and Mrs. Lester Z. Brookshire, 1930 Huron, and their 15 months old daughter Vicki Irene. Dr. Brookshire is now with the Boyd Sprague dental offices. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon Dental School in Portland, and they came here from Prineville. Photo by Guderian
