Parks-Taylor Film Release Set, MGM Crosses Fingers

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively Yours: MGM's blowing the dust off "Love Is Better Than Ever" and after crossing all fingers, will release the picture in April. The film, co-starring Larry Parks and Lia Taylor, has been on the shelf, marked "Too Hot to Handle" ever since Larry went to Washington as a Red probe witness.

Charlie Chaplin, who never talked about retirement seriously before, is saying that "Limelight" will be his last movie. Sylvia Mangano, the woo-woo doll in "Bitter Rice," is expecting Signor Stork again. Her condition cost the lead role in John Huston's "Moulin Rouge." . . . Zsa Zsa Gabor will play the part instead.

Hollywood studio heads are sending memos forbidding poodle haircuts to contract glamor stars. The short, doggy locks create a problem in costume period films.

Clifton Webb's new 14-year contract with Fox gives him the right to direct whenever he decides to give up acting.

Warden Says Food Fund Too Low for Prisoners

SALEM — The State penitentiary needs more money to insure convicts of an adequate diet, Warden Virgil O'Malley told the State Board of Control Tuesday.

"The inmates are getting a good basic ration now, but it's not what it should be," the warden said. "They are getting 2,400 to 2,500 calories a day, and that isn't enough."

The board told the warden to find out how much money he would need in addition to his present food budget, and then ask for it.

Negro Family Finds Friend

EUGENE, Ore. — A Eugene landlady refused Tuesday to evict a Negro family despite an anonymous telephone threat that the house would be burned down otherwise.

Mrs. Eggie Spencer, who rented the house to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gasper and their two children Sunday, said she had received a number of complaints from neighbors. The Gaspers are the first Negroes in the district.

One telephone caller said the house would be burned if the family is not out by Tuesday night, Mrs. Spencer said.

"The Gaspers are good respectable people," she said, adding that she would not evict them. The Gaspers have an eight-month lease with an option to buy the house. It is located on the city outskirts.

Spider Web Jags Nipped

CALI, Colombia — Spiders these days are arachnida non grata in the Cali jail. Seems the boys were getting wooly on the webs, and in the way the local cops spin out the yarn.

The inmates in a particular cell had been turning up tipsy—regularly. Smuggled narcotics were suspected. A trap produced no smuggler, and the jailbirds still got plastered.

The cops watched. They saw the prisoners form a human pyramid. The top man busily gathered cobwebs from the ceiling. These they rolled in cigarette paper. lit them and puffed themselves higher than the nearby Andes.

To keep the spiders from quitting the premises in disgust, what with their homes going up in smoke almost daily, the prisoners fed them succulent flies.

No more spiders, said the police, ordering a quick cleanup.

Sports Jump Red Barrier

OSLO, Norway — The train carrying the winter Olympic teams from West Germany, Poland and Bulgaria pulled into Oslo's east station Wednesday creating political confusion, but little demonstrations.

A tactful trainmaster had separated the three countries as completely as possible. The 50-man Polish team was at the front of the train. The 14 Bulgarians were in the middle and the 32-man German squad near the rear.

The arrival of the two Communist teams and one from the recently enemy nation caused little excitement in the bustling station.

About the only tense moment came when the German squad neared the Poles.

One of the Polish team leaders asked a reporter "Who are they?"

When told it was Germany the leader asked "East?"

"He" was his reply and he turned his back and walked away.

The two squads eyed each other thoroughly as they passed. But just as at home there was a barrier between them—a bench on the station platform.

The Oslo Olympic Committee had Jack's fingers crossed about the Germans. It has been no secret here that Norwegians would have preferred to have the Germans stay home. But if this was a sample, the organizers had little to fear. All three teams soon left for the Olympic village.

Wife Chased, Husband Dies

EUGENE — A wife's report that her estranged husband had fired at her with a shotgun at dawn Tuesday brought police swiftly. When they arrived, the husband was dead of a shotgun blast in the heart—possibly the result of stumbling in pursuit.

Police Capt. Harold Skipworth said the dead man was Irvin Watson, 54. Mrs. Watson, Skipworth said, told this story:

She left the family house to go to work at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday, and saw her husband in a parked car across the street. He fired a shotgun blast then started after her. She darted between houses and into a neighbor's where she called police.

Watson's body was in a back yard through which she had fled. Skipworth said Watson's shotgun could have been discharged accidentally in a fall—or the death could have been suicide.

Valentine CHERRY PIE

tastes better MADE at home with

Kitchen Craft Flour

Recipe for Valentine Cherry Pie

Shift 2 cups sifted Kitchen Craft Flour with 1 tsp. salt. Cut in 1/2 cup shortening till particles are size of small peas. Sprinkle with water (about 1/4 c.) a little at a time. Toss lightly. Use only enough to hold mixture together. Press into ball. Roll out 1/4 of dough on a lightly floured surface. Fit into 9" pie pan. Trim and decorate edges. Prick well. Bake in a 450° F. oven 10 to 15 min. Cool. Roll out remaining dough for "envelopes." Cut rectangles (8" x 2") leaving a wedge-shaped point on one side. Prick well. Bake about 8 min. on a cookie sheet in oven with pie shell. Cool.

Add 2 tsp. water and few drops red food coloring to 1/2 cup of softeners' sugar. With a pastry tube decorate the "envelopes." Before serving, fill pie shell with cherry filling and place "envelopes" on pie by inserting the points into the filling.

Fancy pies, cakes, bread—your baked things have that home-baked goodness only when they're really made at home. And remember, it's the home recipes and the extra-fresh, extra-rich ingredients only you can put into them that give your baked things real homemade flavor. Saves money!

Dillin Scans World Strife

The "rustling of the poor people of the world" and competition for their favor between Democracy and Communism was discussed last night by Dr. Harry L. Dillin, president of Linfield College, before a gathering of Lions Club members and guests at the Willard.

Dr. Dillin has traveled extensively, only recently visiting the Near East and the seven states of the so-called Arab League.

While this country's motive is trying to help the needy people of the world, he declared, the technique is bad.

In the struggle between Communism and Democracy, "America is talking and not acting. America is talking about freedom, but freedom of speech and of opportunity, while the Communists are talking to them about their bellies. While America seeks to send them tractors, which would be impractical on their table-top sized farms, the Communists offer them such simple things as shoes."

"The trouble with America," Dr. Dillin said, "is that there is not enough profit in hoc handles."

Touching on the suspicion with which the Arab world views the Americans, Dr. Dillin noted that beneath the sands of Arabia lies 55 per cent of the world's oil, and that while the public thinks we are helping the Arab because of our desire to lend a helping hand, we are really only concerned over the vital oil resources.

In a civilization that has known little or no change for three thousand years, Dr. Dillin said, you have to think overnight the way America wants to do in those countries.

The fulmar is a bird of the northern ocean. It spends its life in sea except when nesting in colonies like gulls, on coastal islands.

Social Security Card at 89

DUBOIS, Pa. — George Humphrey, an advertising novelties salesman, got his first social security card Tuesday.

He told officials he plans to work until he's 100 and then retire "and enjoy the benefits."

Humphrey is 89. He wasn't eligible for federal social security benefits until the law was expanded recently to cover self-employed workers.

Social security officials believe he is the oldest person ever to apply for a card.

Accident Gives Roasted Spuds

MOORESTOWN, N. J. — Roasted potatoes were for free on the New Jersey Turnpike Tuesday.

It was all an accident, though. A refrigerated truck carrying 16 tons of spuds caught fire in an unknown manner. Firemen fought the blaze two hours before bringing it under control.

The potatoes were a total loss.
