All Major Grains Score Advances

CHICAGO (AP) — A late rally, accompanied by the most active trading of the session, left all major grains with advances at the close on the board of trade Thursday.

Brokers thought the closing advance stemmed mainly from short covering, partly from floor traders who had sold earlier in the day. Final prices in wheat, corn and oats were just about the day's highs.

Until the last half hour, the market had held under the previous close practically the entire session. March corn was an exception, showing strength from the start on export buying.

Wheat closed $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, Mar. $\$2.57\frac{1}{2}$, corn $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, Mar. $\$1.93\frac{1}{2}$, oats $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, Mar. $\$1.84\frac{1}{2}$, rye $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, Mar. $\$1.98\frac{1}{2}$, soybeans 1 cent lower to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, Mar. $\$2.99$, and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, Mar. $\$13.80$.

Oil Demands Holding Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Highly selective demand centering in oils today kept the stock market a shade higher.

Aside from issues in which there was exceptional demand, prices were spread out over a range of around 2 points higher to 1 lower.

The volume of business again lagged at an estimated 1,300,000 shares.

Railroads held ahead, and steels and motors were steady. A few good plus signs showed up in utilities, gold mines, and rubbers.

Potato Ceilings Start Timed

Henry Witte, OPS representative from the Portland district office, has told Klamath County Agent Walter Jendrzewski that potato price ceilings begin "when the potatoes are put in containers."

In effect, he said, potatoes sold as a unit in the cellar, for instance, were not subject to the OPS price ceiling regulations.

The ceilings, on U.S. No. 1 inch-and-three-eighths minimum diameters, are 33.75 this month. Other grades, according to the OPS, including ungraded spuds, are a dollar per hundred less.

Man Admits Holdup Guilt

Thomas Patrick Schram, 28, admitted robbing Walter Vaughn, Oregon Food Store No. 2 manager, of $476 with a toy pistol the night of Dec. 10, 1951.

"I wouldn't plead guilty to it, sir," Schram said to Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg late this morning. "If I hadn't done it."

Schram has been in custody since 90 minutes after the robbery Dec. 10.

The following day Schram was charged with robbery, armed with a dangerous weapon.

NO GUN

Police never found the supposed gun, and recovered only $252 of the loot when Schram was arrested at Wocus Tavern 90 minutes after the holdup.

Today the charge was changed to read "robbery, by putting in fear of force and violence, not being armed with a dangerous weapon."

In September, 1946, Schram was sentenced in Circuit Court here to two years on conviction of obtaining money by false pretenses.

He served eight months of the time, was released, but later served the full term on parole revocation.

In 1948 in Portland he was sentenced to two four-year terms on conviction of pulling two robberies with toy pistols. He was released from the State Prison only last August.

Schram also admitted being arrested in Vancouver, Wash., in 1948 for an attempted filling station robbery.

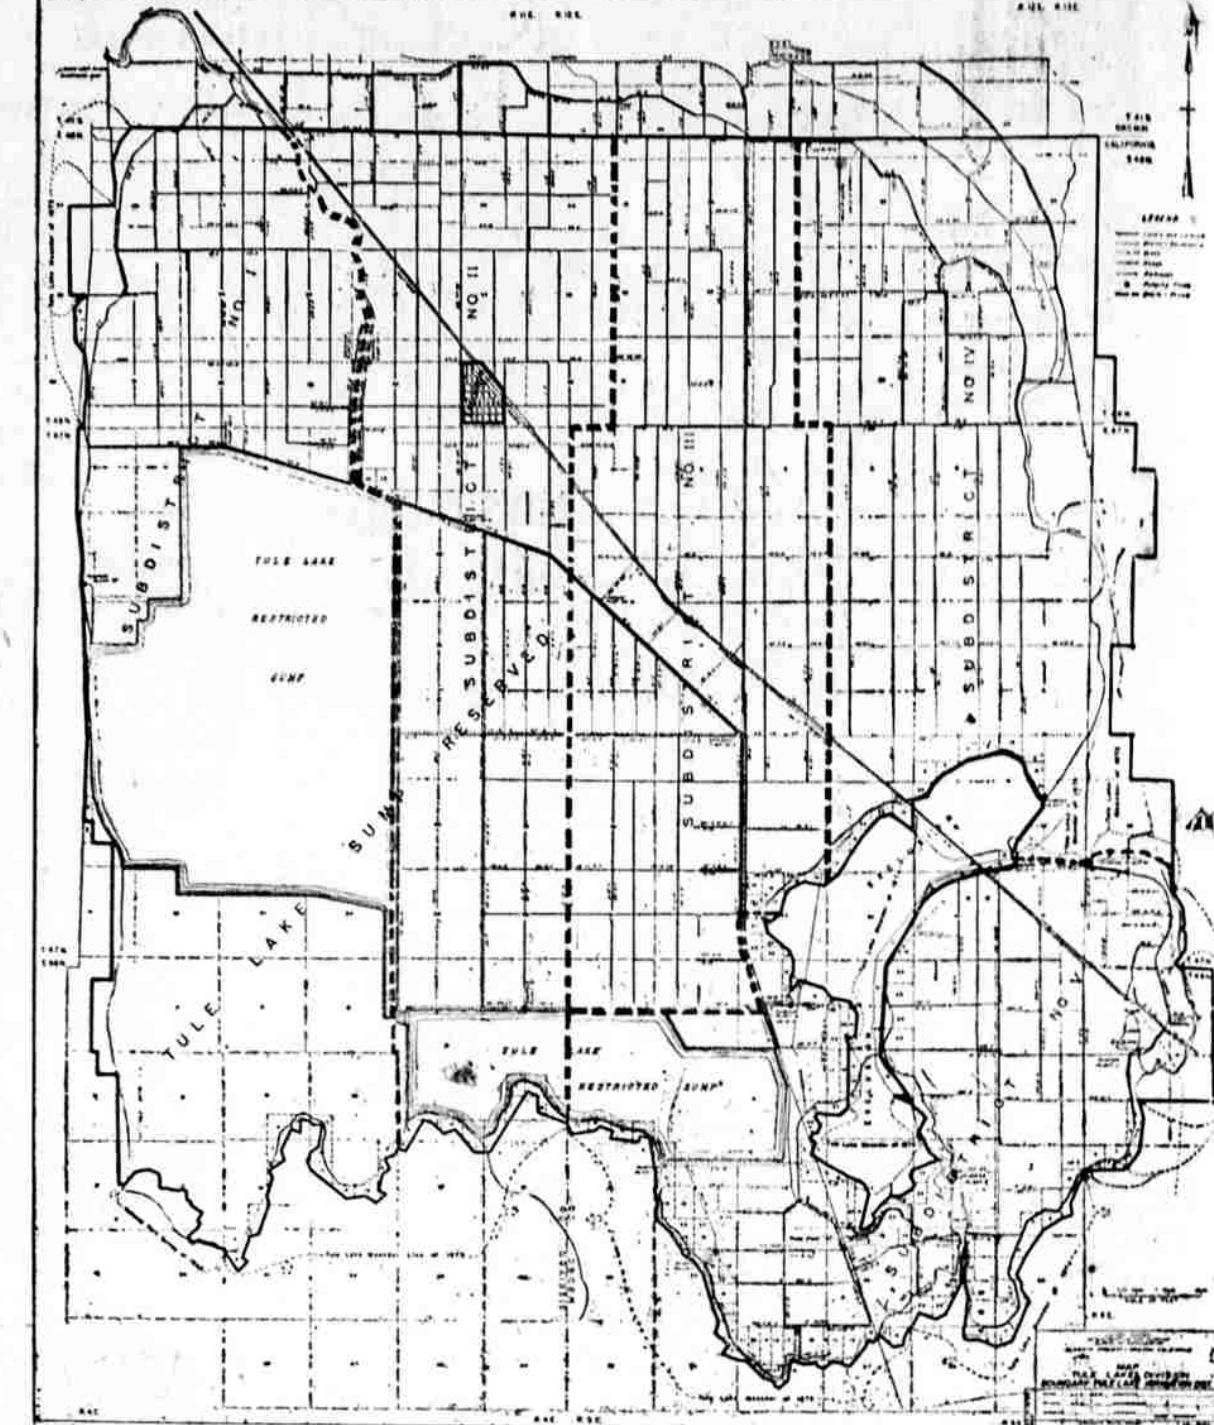

CONVICTIONS

"I was not prosecuted on that charge," Schram told the judge, "because they took me over to Portland and I was convicted on the two robberies."

"But I did the Vancouver job," he said. "I was caught 20 minutes after trying the holdup."

Judge Vandenberg said he would pass sentence when he returned to town. He is scheduled to leave town for several weeks.

TULELAKE FARMERS step out Mar. 11 to vote for directors of the organizing Tulelake Water District. One director will be elected from each of the five subdistricts (divided by dotted lines in map above). The district follows the old meander line of Tulelake, but excludes the town of Tulelake itself. It includes some 93,000 acres. The district, in operation, would put the operation and maintenance under control of the water users themselves, instead of the Bureau of Reclamation, thus returning revenues to the district alone, and not the bureau.

Retail Beef Prices Down

PORTLAND (AP) — Declining cattle prices on the North Portland livestock market were reflected Thursday in lower retail beef prices.

Some beef prices were well below ceilings, with ground beef selling at 35 to 59 cents a pound. Rib and swiss steaks were as low as 85 cents, and rib roast 79.

Theodore T. Swenson, federal market reporter, said that the lower livestock market prices reflect an increased supply of beef throughout the country. Pork prices also are at a seasonal low.

Soil District Votes Counted

Ballots cast in the Langell Valley Soil Conservation District election Monday were being counted late this morning, and Polling Supvr. Basil Hall, Bly, said they would probably be finished early this afternoon.

The election would add three-quarters of a million acres of lands to the present 120,000-acre Langell Valley SCD if the proposed passes.

Approximately 70 ballots were cast.

EASIER NEW PIE CRUST

it's GOLDEN FLAKE good with Snowdrift and Milk!

Easier, tastier pie crust without any guess-work!

Start the usual way—cut in Snowdrift with all the flour. Extra easy with quick-blending Snowdrift, your emulsified shortening.

Now comes Snowdrift's wonderful new secret for sureness! This pie crust is made with milk—an exact amount—no guessing how much to add. Result: a crust rich in flavor and color with "golden flake" goodness clear through! Rolls neatly, too, between waxed papers.

You'll call this your "trusty crust" recipe! Just be sure you use Snowdrift—pure all-vegetable shortening.

RED CHERRY PIE with Snowdrift's New "Golden Flake" Pie Crust

Snowdrift with Milk gives you the crust you can trust every time—golden brown and rich in flavor!

- Yields a double-crust pie or lattice-top pie, or 2 pastry shells. Preheat oven to 425°.
- Mix in large mixing bowl 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, such as Gold Medal.
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup Snowdrift using blender or knives, until mixture looks like coarse meal. Remove 1/4 cup (4 tsp.) for Step 2.

- Measure 1/2 cup milk and stir in 1/4 cup of the Snowdrift-flour mixture.
- Stir together and mix into the remaining Snowdrift-flour mixture to form dough. Press into a ball and flatten slightly.

- Roll half the dough between two waxed papers (12 inches square). Ease off top paper. Pick up bottom paper at top corners. Dough will cling. Place (paper side up) in 9-inch pie pan. Peel off paper; fit into pan. Trim. Add filling.

CHERRY FILLING: Drain 1 (No. 2) can red sour cherries; save juice. Combine 2 tbs. cornstarch, 1/4 to 1/2 cup sugar and dash salt. Stir in 1/4 cup canned cherry juice. Cook until thick and clear. Add 1 tsp. almond extract. Turn drained cherries into pie shell; add thickened juice and dot with 2 tbs. butter. Cover with lattice pastry. TO MAKE LATTICE TOP: Roll remaining dough as above. Peel off top paper. Cut into 1/4-inch strips. Wax strips crosswise on waxed paper. Pin quickly over filling. Seal ends without moistening and flute edge. Bake in hot oven, 425° F., about 40 minutes.
