Cattle, Sheep Quotations Steady

CHICAGO (#) — Hogs, cattle and sheep sold at steady quotations Saturday.

A mixed trend developed in hogs this week. Types scaling under 220 pounds lost 10 to 15 cents, but heavier weights, as well as sows, gained 10 to 25 cents, The rally came late in the week after prices had dropped on Wednesday to the lowest average cost since May, 1950. The dressed pork market was slow.

In the cattle section, slaughter steers and heiters sold steady to 50 cents higher. Cows and buils advanced 50 cents to $1.00 but yealers plunged $2.00 to $3.00.

Lamb prices continued to dealine this week. Closing top of $29.00 was a new low on the winter-fed crop and the lowest since October, 1950. Prices were about $10 under the same week last year. The dressed lamb market moved sharply lower.

The range went about a point either way. Many leading issues opened late and traded unchanged for long periods.

Volume came to an estimated 500,000 shares, the second slowest two-hour session this year. A week ago the total was 610,000 shares.

Colorado & Southern renewed its sensational advance started Friday on reports of another attempt being made by the management at refunding.
