Agency Nurse Recent Bride

KLAMATH AGENCY—Elizabeth Casebier, local nurse, was married in Seattle on Dec. 30 in an evening ceremony at the navy chapel. The residing chaplain, Father Gunthner read the service which united Elizabeth in marriage to Jack Morgan of Seattle. Morgan is a seaman first class and has been in the navy for several years.

For her wedding, Mrs. Morgan chose a wine colored floor length gown with a velvet top and a tulle full skirt. The dress was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her headpiece and corsage were made from yellow rosebuds.

Following a wedding trip to Portland, Morgan returned to his base and his wife came back to Klamath Agency to resume work in the local hospital.

Morgan leaves in about six weeks for six months of overseas duty and his wife plans to remain here.

Jeanette Overen Marriage Rites In Pasadena

Grace Lutheran Church in Pasadena was the scene of an informal wedding, witnessed by a small group of relatives and close friends when Jeanette Overen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Overen, 3703 Summers Lane, exchanged vows with Carl Habedanck, son of Mrs. Charlotte Wiedekind, Los Angeles. Pastor Victor H. Quello read the service at 11 a.m., Jan. 26.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Phil Riley, who wore a street length dress of cocoa-brown satin, gold felt hat and a yellow rosebud corsage. Wesley Edwards was best man. Mrs. Vivian Huss was organist, and played incidental music for the wedding service.

Jeanette wore a ballerina length dress of blue-green taffeta with three quarter sleeves and a beaded sweetheart neckline. Her hat was of black velvet with a rhinestone trimmed veil. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The couple honeymooned in Oregon, and visited with the bride's parents. They are now at home, 250 N. New Hampshire St., Los Angeles.

The new Mrs. Habedanck was graduated from Wittenburg High School, Wittenburg, Wis., and her husband is a graduate of Cologne High School, Berlin, Germany.
