Americans.

JOBS DAUGHTERS — annual "King of Hearts" ball tonightthe Armory will be one big Valentine according to the decorating committee.

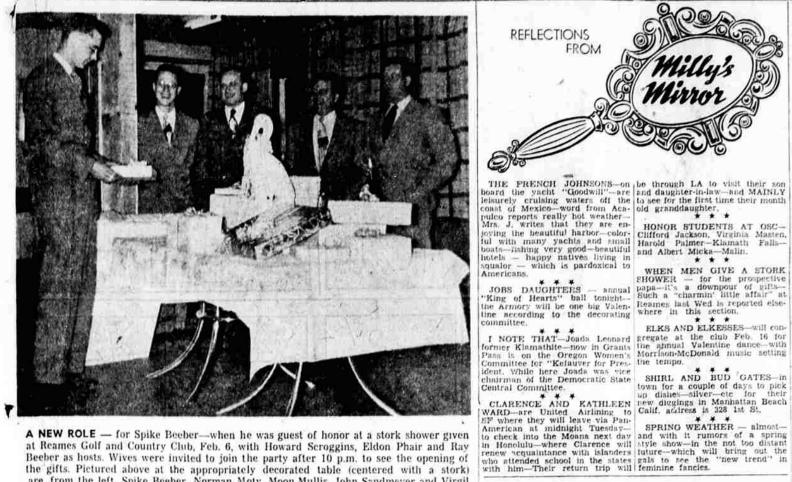

WHEN MEN GIVE A STORK SHOWER — for the prospective papa—it's a downpour of gifts—
Such a "charmin" little affair at Reamer last Wed is reported elsewhere in this section.

I NOTE THAT—Joads Leonard gregate at the club Feb. 16 for former Klamathite—now in Grants Pass is on the Oregon Women's Morrison-McDonald music setting Committee for "Kefauver for Pres-

ELKS AND ELKESSES-will con-

REFLECTIONS

former Klamathite—now in Grants Pass is on the Oregon Women's Committee for "Kefauver for Pres-

A NEW ROLE — for Spike Beeber—when he was guest of honor at a stork shower given at Reames Golf and Country Club, Feb. 6, with Howard Scroggins, Eldon Phair and Ray Beeber as hosts. Wives were invited to join the party after 10 p.m. to see the opening of the gifts. Pictured above at the appropriately decorated table (centered with a stork) are, from the left, Spike Beeber, Norman Moty, Moon Mullis, John Sandmeyer and Virgil

RECITAL AT SACRED HEART

Sacred Heart Academy will pre-

Women Meet At

Mrs. Kenneth Lambie introduced W. A. Sellwood. Portland, world traveler and guest speaker who told of the great need for goats in Korea.

n Korea.

Recently returned from Korea, be said there were a 100,000 children who do not know their pariental status, the majority are probably orphans. Army docors say that two out of three are victims of tuberculosis.

Goats are immune to the discordance of the control of t

The population is now largely Christian children with a sprinkling of mothers left. Fathers atmost without excepton have been sent into battle sent into battle.

Each gost costs $50 delivered and the speaker hoped to get 50 from the Klamath area.

President Elsie Warren appoint-ed her committees for the coming

Members present were: Donna Carr, Oma Lee Buck, Greta Schweiger, Veronica Searles, Mary Williams, Elsie Warren, Martha Cassidy, Doris Green, Lou Perkins, Vera Gordon and Bertha Moss. Oma Lee Buck furnished refresh-ments.

ART NEEDLEWORK

SHOPPE

New Address 412 Main fored Supply of Hand Knitting Yarns Knitting Instructions

SEGO MILK COUPONS REDEEMED

Manzanita Chapter 172 Eastern Star

Eastern Star

Feb. 19, 2-20 p.m. in the Academy Auditorium. The public is cordially mitted to this recital, the theme of which is 'The All American Cirl.'

Appearing on the program with the the following: Linda Ellfs, Carmelle Hartin, Lynden Bowen, Mary Andrieu. Louise McLaughlin, Rossilis Bariell, Julie Ann Rhodes, Gall Stafford, Sandra Frederick, Katherine Brauner, Linda Hanville, Sandra Frederick, Katherine Brauner, Linda Hanville, Sandra Frederick, Katherine Brauner, Sandra Kaperson, Pamela Starr, Constance Reed, Ann Jendragewski, Stephenie Lee, Maxilie Hicks, Shirley Jackson, Patricia Trelease and Frances Montl.

Kathleen Dougherty, Jean Ann May, Georgia Geus, Carlene Franks, Joanne Miller, Sandra Nash, Patricia Miller, Suzanne Feeback, Margaret Smith, Rose Waters, Sharon Rutten, Carol Relling, Georgiana, Tocchino, Patricia Eorsen, Karen Cogburn, Pendelpe Lee, Maureen Novak, Ginger Vaden, Jo Anne Bogatay, Barbara Futherland, Sharran Whitlock, Nancy Wemple and Vicki Jan Roman.

Recently Wed

Church Council

Kiamath Falls Council of Church
Women held a meeting Jan. 28 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.
Mrs. John Yadon gave the invocation and Mrs. Ivan Riffey
Church of the Brethren was 'charge of devotions. A duet, 'Threthe Cates of Gold' was sung by Mrs. B. J. Loftsgaard and Mrs. E Skoe.

Last year the Oregon Council inaugurated the plan for holding the annual meeting in several sessions throughout the state for the benefit of all who desired to attend. This year's schedule includes meetings at the First Methodiat Church, Pendleon, Feb. 5; the Westminster First Christian Church, Salem, Feb. 7; First Methodiat Church, Roseburg, Feb. 8. Programs in each-city will be identical.

Mrs. Lawrence Phelps announced Feb. 29 as the date for the annual World Day of Prayer.

Mrs. Kenneth Lambie introduced world.

Sub District. ningham, daughter of Charles Gentry of Medford, became the

Sub District Garden Club

Gosts are immune to the discarded and cost of care is small case and cost of care is small containing gift, the speaker said, the original 2200 sent to Korea now number 10,000.

The population is now largely the population is now largely carly spring.

DELPHIANS

most without excepton have been sent into battle.

Each goat costs $50 delivered and the speaker hoped to get 50 from the Klamath area.

MEETING

Regular meeting of the Suburban Fire Department Auxillary was held Monday night, 8 p.m. at the fire station.

Plans were discussed for a joint card party with the men members.

President Elsie Warren appointed her committees for the coming the sent state of the same appointed her committees for the coming the sent state of the same appointed her committees for the coming the sent state of the same appointed her committees for the coming the sent state of the same appointed her committees for the coming the same appointed her committees the same appointed her commit

CONVERT YOUR OLD COTTON MATTRESS

into a 312 coil INNERSPRING

Save with Carlson's 2405 So. 6th Phone 4510

Carlson's

A 59.95

Quality ..

Mattress

& Upholstery

32.50

MARY ELLEN BRADSHAW who before her marriage January 26, was Mary Ellen Prior of Springfield, Mass. The bridegroom is James A. Bradshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bradshaw, Bonanza, Mrs. Bradshaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Prior also of Springfield. They were married at St. Michael's Cathedral in that city. The bridegroom is in the Navy and has been stationed at Westover Field, Mass. He has been transferred to the Memphis, Tenn., Naval air technical training center.

... with a valentine!

Sentimental

· For the family

Humorous

FIFTY YEARS AGO-Bertha Norman became the bride of Charles E. Everett at Norman Station, Indiana. Their wedding anniversary was Dec. 30, and open house was held at their home, 5610 Leland Dr., for members of the family and their many friends. They have been residents of Klamath Falls for 20 years. Photo by Guderian

Birthday Party

REMEMBER

YOUR

SWEETHEART

... with a gift!

Personalized stationery

Books, scrapbooks, photo albums and billfolds

and matches

· Pen and pencil sets

BEAUTIFULLY GIFT WRAPPED!

Shaw Stationery Co.

bus and had a delicious dinner and

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD

SHEARER - 2136 Hola-

bird, announce the be-trothal of their daughter

Betty to Ralph M. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, Banks, Ore. Betty is a KUHS graduate and attended OTI, where her fiance is at present a student. The wedding date has been set for Easter

Sunday at St. Paul's Epis-

Eight et Forty

copal Church.

Hall.

FACULTY WIVES AND WOMENS' CLUB-at OTI are planning a Sweetheart party Feb. 13, 8 p.m., in the Student's Lounge in the Student Union Building. Mrs. H. C. Madoel is chairman. Pictured with her are her assistants. From the left, seated, Mrs. Grant Bailey, Mrs. Madoel, Mrs. Robert L. Smith, Mrs. Del Jones, Mrs. Winston Purvine. Standing, Mrs. F. L. O'Connell, left, and Mrs. Jesse Crabtree.

ANW Club Meets Art and Needlework Club met at

Members present were: Mrs. Z. C. Powell, Mrs. H. M. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, She will return about March I. Members present were: Mrs tenburg, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. George Hurn and Mrs. C. H. Underwood.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Laura E. Chamberlain and Mrs. E. M. Bubb.

Next meting will be at the home of Mrs. Z. C. owell, March 5, at I p.m.

Stork Shower

Mrs. James Barrett was guest of honor at a stork shower given at the home of Mrs. Glenn Walker, at the home of Mrs. Glenn Walker, 5311 Miller, on the evening of Jan. 25. The room was decorated with white chrysanthemums, pink roses and blue forget-me-nots. A small clothesline of tiny baby clothing decorated one end of the room and this was later used in one of the games.

Following the opening of gifts refreshments were served to the

Following the opening of gifts refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. G. B. Chambers, Mrs. G. B. Chambers, Mrs. G. A. Chambers, Mrs. Thelma Melton, Mrs. Candis Shoof, Mrs. J. R. Buzek, Mrs. R. C. Chambers, Mrs. W. M. Chambers, Mrs. Avis Johnson, Mrs. Paul Larkey, Mrs. Judson Brown, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. Geo. Meade, Mrs. Ned Smith, Mrs. C. A. Bousman, Mrs. Marvin Bland, Mrs. Ray Bland, Mrs. James McCain, Mrs. Bertle Barrett, Mrs. Wilson Barrett, Mrs. Guy Griffith, and Miss Mavis Reeves. Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. T. L. Chambers, Mrs. Clara English, Mrs. Jerry Fales, Mrs. Gustafson and Allice Gustafson.

Mrs. Glenn Walker was hostess for the Mrs. Glenn Walker was hostess. Eight et Forty, Salon 355 met an. 24 in the American Legion Due to the absence of resident Effic Paul, because of illness, Fan-nie Mae Thompson presided.

After the business meeting there was a social hour of games. Mrs. Glenn Walker was hostess for the affair, with Mrs. Wilson Barrett and Mrs. James McCain

SOROPTIMIST

Isabelle Brixner, vice president the home of Mrs. C. J. Martin, of the Soroptimist Club presided on North Seventh, for a one o'clock at the regular luncheon meeting luncheon. Thursday, Feb. 7, in the Pelican Cafe Party Room.

President Isabelle announced an executive board meeting Tuesday evening at her home on Lake-shore drive.

Frances Anderson won the award

Ruth Adams announced the com-ing of the Bloodmobile and sev-eral members volunteered as do-nors.

Mrs. Alfred Collier and Mrs Agnes Oliver were luncheon guests. Soroptimist Annely Unrek is the mother of a brand new daughter, born Feb. 7.

born Feb. 7.

Josephine Robinson, program chairman for the day introduced, John Oliver, Klamath Falls Union High School senior who spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency." John an outstanding student and a member of the school debate team, was an interesting speaker. He spoke of the importance of good homes, and family life in curbing juvenile delinquency since the, home is the "foundation of democracy."

The speaker stressed the fact

The speaker stressed the fact that teen-agers should be taught as grown-ups and that schools should teach students how to get along with others. This would help young people to enter into the projects and interests of the community ofter leaving school.

PIANO CO.

120 No. 7th

Refreshments were served by hostesses Julia Williams and Ma-ble Poster. Birthday Dinner LANGELL VALLEY-Mrs. Bill

"Four Floors of Fine Furniture and Floor Coverings"

Klamath Furniture Co

REGISTERED JEWELER

700 Main St.

Phone 3151