Vanport Drops Pair

By The Associated Press
Vanport gained undisputed possession of first place in Oregon Collegiate Conference standings over the weekend.
But it was due to Oregon College of Education's two defeats at the hands of Oregon Tech. Friday

OTI won 66-61. Saturday, OTI, paced by Tom Schubert, who scored 22 points, defeated OCE 55-43. Vanport meantime lost a non-conference two-game weekend series at Seattle. They were defeated 81-87 Friday and 62-64 Saturday by Seattle Pacific.

UCLA 3 3 .500
Southern Cal. 2 3 .500
Stanford 2 4 .333

The Idaho Vandals, still holding a faint hope of taking the Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference basketball title, have two shots at tailing Oregon State this week before tackling defending champion Washington.
And the Vandals who split a pair with Oregon over the weekend 49-56 and 77-66, will need to sweep the series at Corvallis Monday and Tuesday to remain in the running. A pair of victories will leave the Idahoans a game behind Washington when they meet at Moscow Friday and Saturday.
Oregon and Oregon State tangle in another Friday-Saturday series, while Washington State, the fifth Northern Division team rests.
The Washington Huskies, eighth-ranked nationally in the Associated Press poll, pulled two games ahead of Idaho with 69-56 and 54-37 weekend wins over Oregon State.
Deadeye Bob Houbrigs 6 foot 7 center, counted 30 points Saturday night in pacing Washington to its 10th conference win of the season. Houbrigs connected for 11 of 14 shots from the field for a new school record. LaDon Henson set the previous record of 7 for 10 in 1951. Oregon State's best challenge came in the second quarter when the Beavers spurted to close the margin at halftime to 29-21.
Idaho and Oregon battled on even terms for most of the Vandal-Duck tilt at Eugene. The game was tied seven times before Herb Millard's field goal, with eight minutes left, put the Vandals ahead to stay. Oregon led 35-34 at the half.

Bearcats Near Title

Northwest Conference
By The Associated Press

W L Pct.	PP	PA
Willamette 8 1 .888	66	513
Lewis and Clark 5 4 .555	825	732
Pacific 5 6 .455	647	700
Whitman 4 5 .444	574	569
Linfield 3 7 .300	614	664
College of Idaho 1 9 .111	423	596

Willamette 82 Lewis and Clark 69;
Pacific 71, Linfield 64.
Willamette's smooth clicking, sharpshooting hoop team of veterans crushed Lewis and Clark twice over the week-end to bring the Northwest Conference basketball title close to their grasp.
The Bearcats' race-horse fast break offense was too much for the Pioneers, who had held first place and are unbeaten by other conference teams.
Ted Loder, a keen-eyed forward, and Doug Logue a polished center, were Willamette's deadliest marksmen in its 86-79 and 82-69 victories. Loder registered 53 points and Logue 39.
Lewis and Clark played the second game without its ace forward Ken Servas, who suffered an injury while scoring 19 points in the first contest. John Feuz, the Pioneers' big center had a two-game total of 29.
Willamette could just about clinch the championship by beating fourth-place Whitman and cellar-dwelling College of Idaho next Friday and Saturday.
Pacific swept a two-game series from Linfield, 1951 co-champion with Willamette, to move into third place. The scores were 70-62 and 71-64. Forward Julian Amaya sparked Pacific with 29 points.

Mustangs Edge Tule

Malin edged Tulelake Saturday night on its own floor by a 49-46 count.
Wayne Rick paced the Mustangs with 22 points in the inter-city, non-league game.
Tulelake's Sowles and Ayres had 14 and 12.
Tulelake won the B preliminary game, 41-37.
Box score:
