Top Film Stars to Have Veto Over TV Show Ads

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA) — Hollywood on TV: Ginger Rogers, it now can be told, jumped into a $1,000,000 TV contract with her eyes open much wider than Hollywood suspected. There will be no beer can and the nasal spiel of a used car salesman.
 Her CBS contract gives the star the right to veto any objectionable advertising.
 The same clause, I hear, will be in the contracts of other top film stars when they move into the TV channels.
 Ginger's first show will be in Hollywood, starting in April, with the format now being worked out. One thing is certain: She'll do an occasional song-and-dance routine.
 Eddie Cantor on the film-vs.-live TV question:
 "When it's on film the entertainers will last longer—and by lasting longer I mean on this earth."
 There's a comparatively new (hurray!) English movie making the TV rounds—"Seven Days to Noon." It was filmed in 1950... Bill Williams, who plays "Kit Carson," will make a spring personal appearance tour of the midwest and south... Eye-opening fact: The 198 TV stations now in operation are covering 61 per cent of the U. S. population. Five million new TV sets are expected to be sold in 1952.

PFC. RALPH MANNING, 22, has shipped to Japan with the 238th gun battalion. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Manning of the Henley district. Ralph is an ex-Henley student.

Several Eyed For Oscars

HOLLYWOOD — The movie world Tuesday learned the hopefuls in the annual Oscar Derby and it shapes up as a wide open race.
 Only Vivien Leigh, who played the demented Southern in "A Streetcar Named Desire" appeared to be a favorite among the top contenders. The English beauty has been tabbed a probable winner in advance predictions. It would be her second Oscar, since she was awarded one for playing another Southern belle in "Gone With the Wind."
 She has strong competition. Also nominated for the best actress award are Katherine Hepburn in "The African Queen"; Eleanor Parker in "Detective Story"; Shelley Winters in "A Place in the Sun"; and Jane Wyman in "The Blue Veil."
 The race for the ten honors among the actors looks like a hard fight among five Broadway-trained performers. Two veterans, Humphrey Bogart ("The African Queen") and Fredric March ("Death of a Salesman") are pitted against three youngsters — Marlon Brando ("A Streetcar Named Desire"), Montgomery Clift ("A Place in the Sun") and Arthur Kennedy ("Bright Victory").

Weighted Girls Give Blood

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Two pretty brown-haired co-eds at Memphis State College, who didn't weigh enough to become donors in a Red Cross blood drive, used 17 pounds of pennies and metal between them to make the grade.
 Myrtle Penner of Greenbrier, Ark., and Yvonne Erle of nearby Whitehaven were turned down the first time they went to the Bloodmobile. Myrtle needed 13 pounds, her roommate four. You have to weigh 110 to give blood.
 When they went back the next day, they had the pennies and metal in their clothes—and tipped the scales in good shape. Each was accepted for a pint.

Threats Draw Fine for Man

PHILADELPHIA — A Philadelphia man convicted of sending threatening letters to the wives of four U.S. senators, was fined $100 and placed on a year's probation Monday by Federal Judge Guy K. Bard.
 The defendant, John J. Fleck, 63, a news-stand employee, was arrested in August by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.
 He was charged with writing letters to the wives of Sens. Wayne Morse, (R-Ore.) and Spessard Holland (D-Fla.) and to the wives of former Sens. Claude Pepper of Florida and Chan Gurney, South Dakota.
 Fleck wrote in the letters that if a senator votes to vest powers in the President he violates his oath, and, "is it not then the duty and the right of the people to get a gun and shoot him on sight?"

Old Testament Words Revised

COLUMBUS, O. — "The idyllic A workman casteth, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casteth for it silver chains."
 That's the 19th verse of the 40th chapter of Isaiah in a new version of the Old Testament.
 The King James version of the Bible, published in 1611, said:
 "The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains."
 The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., Monday made public samples of the revised version—the third authorized in 341 years. It's aimed at simplicity, with use of modern language in the present tense.
 The revision was authorized in 1929. Thirty-two churches which now contain difficult language.
 Revision of the New Testament was completed in 1948. First publication of the complete Bible is scheduled for next September.

Joe Stafford Turned Down a TV Bid

Joe Stafford turned down a TV bid from General Mills for a five-day-a-week show. It would have originated in New York and Joe is holding out for a Hollywood studio. She's never been seen on television.

Herbert J. Yates, President of Republic, Will Not Use Name Stars in TV Films

Herbert J. Yates, president of Republic, will not use name stars in the TV films Republic will make. The first is "Commando Cody-Sky Marshal of the Universe." It's the first space patrol show in which rockets will be seen buzzing through the sky, thanks to the studio's special effects department.
 There's a TV film series coming up based on the exploits of winners of the Congressional Medal of Honor.
 Howard Hughes may buy up the rights to "Young Widow," Jane Russell's 1945 movie, to keep it off TV. Jane and Howard are both unhappy about its revival... Pinky Crane and Vivian Blaine, who've switched to film to improve the quality... Economy note: Jack Webb uses no make-up whatever for his male characters in the "Dragnet" films. The girls use their own routine street make-up.

Richard Avonde, Former Fencing Champion of Canada, Will Be Star of a TV Film Series

Richard Avonde, former fencing champion of Canada, will be the star of a TV film series, "Don Diablo." The pilot reel was just completed at the Hal Roach studio.
 Time marches on: The new TV version of the "Our Gang" comedies, to be produced again by veteran moviemaker Hal Roach, will show one of the moppets in a spaceman's outfit and another in a cowboy suit.
 Complaint dept: Hey, what's the matter with stop watches on TV? Too often the breathless master of ceremonies rushes in front of the cameras to say, "Our time is short but here..." and then is abruptly cut off by the network or station identification.
 What he's trying to say is driving me mad, mad, mad.

Blind Aid

MUNCIE, Ind. — Fred H. Coats didn't realize he was driving the wrong way on a one-way street until his blind passenger told him.
 Coats said he and his passenger, Mario Pieroni, a former city judge, had been busy talking, but Pieroni sensed that they'd gone beyond the intersection where two-way traffic stops.

Graham Asks More Prayer

WASHINGTON — Evangelist Billy Graham moves deeper Tuesday into the final week of his capital crusade, but he may return on March 17.
 The Greater Washington Evangelistic Crusade began Jan. 13 and now is scheduled to wind up next Sunday in a meeting at the Washington Monument.
 Graham told an estimated 10,500 persons Sunday that the National Guard Armory, site of most of the meetings, will become available again on March 17. He asked their prayers for the success of negotiations to book it then for a week or 17 days.
 Graham aides said they have about raised their $100,000 budget through "generous offerings."

Eddie Albert is eyeing the post-Diplomat Asks Family Haven

WASHINGTON — An Egyptian diplomat says he will offer his wife and three children for adoption "by some kind and generous American" rather than return home, as his government demands.
 First, however, he will try to find a job to support his family, he told a news conference Monday, adding:
 "I can't live on debt or on charity."
 The diplomat, M. A. Nassef, attacked the Egyptian government for what he called inhuman treatment in insisting that his wife return before giving birth to their fourth child in June. Doctors certificate he displayed said she had been cautioned against travel.
 Nassef declared tearfully that his salary had been stopped since Jan. 15 and that he had been reduced to selling his personal belongings in order to live.
 An Egyptian Embassy spokesman, S. Hassan, said Nassef had been given a month's notice to go to Egypt. He said the Embassy was willing to provide care and protection for Nassef's wife and children if they wished to remain behind.
 Nassef said this was not true. Nassef, who served as press secretary for the embassy, said he was a newspaper editor in Egypt before coming to this country. He indicated his government was retaliating against him for criticizing the embassy.

River Yields Five Bodies

OROFINO, Idaho — The bodies of a man, his wife and their three children were found in an overturned auto removed from the Clearwater River near here late Monday.
 Sheriff W. W. Hays said the bodies had been identified as Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marks and their three children from the Lapwai Indian Reservation, drowned Sunday night when their car plunged into the river after it was struck by another machine.
 Prosecutor Wynne Blake said William M. Bounds, 32, Lewiston, Idaho, driver of the second car, reported the accident. Bounds said his car struck the rear of another machine parked along the Lewis and Clark Highway and both tumbled into the river. Bounds said he thought the second car was empty.
 The bodies were found Monday when crews dragged the Marks' car to shore.

Hero's Wife Seeks Answer

LUBBOCK, Tex. — The wife of a jet ace Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., reported missing in action in Korea, said Monday she would like to ask a full-scale investigation of why he was left in Korea.
 "If I could feel that he has lost his life for some good reason, I could feel better about it," Mrs. Davis told C. W. Ratliff of the Lubbock Journal.
 Mrs. Davis, who is expecting her third child the first week in May, received the missing in action telegram Sunday night. She was put to bed under medical treatment.
 "I would like to ask a full-scale investigation of why he was left in Korea," she told Ratliff, who visited her at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Cantwell, in Lubbock.
 "In the first place, he should never have been sent overseas," she said. "He would have been more valuable over here, teaching younger fellows to fly."
 She has received no further word since the telegram Sunday night. She told Ratliff: "No doubt I won't get much more information after this statement but it may help someone else."
