

County O&C Share May Be Slashed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oregon counties may suffer a double cut in revenues from O. & C. timber lands, it was revealed here Tuesday when a House appropriations subcommittee made public recent testimony.

A number of Oregon counties now receive 75 per cent of the receipts from the sale of timber on O. & C. lands. The remainder goes to the federal government.

SPLIT
Marion Clawson, Bureau of Land Management director, said that bills now in both the House and Senate proposed dividing the revenues evenly between the counties and the government. That would mean the counties' revenues would be cut one third.

Clawson also said his bureau would recommend amending these bills so all government administrative expenses would be deducted before the 50-50 split is made. That would reduce the counties' share still further.

The matter came up during discussion of a $700,000 program for access roads in the O. & C. lands. The House committee rejected a similar request for access road money last year, but an appropriation, granted by the Senate, remained in a compromise bill worked out by Senate and House conferees.

NO LOSSES
Clawson said that under the present 75-25 split, the government has not lost money. Administrative costs have been less than the government's share, he said.

Rep. Norrell D. Ark., questioned Clawson's statement. "That is a broad statement and might be subject to argument. Frankly I'm not convinced," he said.

New Phone Books Ready
The 1952 Pacific Telephone and Telegraph phone directories — 14,000 of them — will be delivered, starting today, to homes and businesses in Klamath Falls and the surrounding area, according to Mgr. C. E. Seavey.

This year's books are decorated a little differently than usual—a yellow stripe across the cover. There are 450 more of them than last year, Seavey said.

He asked residents to shake out addresses, money and other items usually hidden in phone books from last year's directories. They will be picked up as the new ones are brought in, he said.

There were 18,500 directories printed this year; there are 11,550 phones on the Klamath Falls exchange, a gain of 450 more than last year.

Seavey said there are 75 pages of listings in the new directory, and 180 pages of classified section.

Grandma Gets Security Card
TROY, N. Y. (AP) — Grandma Moses, whose primitive paintings won her world fame, has a social security number for the first time — at the age of 81.

Grandma—Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses of nearby Eagle Bridge—recently was assigned an account number through the Social Security office here. She had applied for it as a self-employed person.

REUTHER TO EUGENE
PORTLAND (AP) — Walter Reuther, CIO official, will speak at the diamond jubilee of the University of Oregon at Eugene Feb. 26.

SLAIN — Charles Gross, 55, acting Republican committeeman in the 31st ward, was shot to death at Kedzie and North Avenues on Chicago's North side. Gross, described as a vigorous foe of the so-called hoodlum element seeking domination of some of Chicago's wards, was slain in gangland style by a shotgun blast from a parked car, which sped away after the shooting.

HST's Foreign Policy Rapped

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan., manager of the Eisenhower for President headquarters in Washington, said Tuesday night that President Truman's foreign policy is "fumbling, indecisive and vacillating."

Carlson made the statement in a speech at the Lincoln Day dinner of the Kings County Republican Committee.

He spoke against "the tyranny of government which constantly encroaches upon the liberties of the people through bureaucratic regimentation and excessive taxation."

Carlson called on Republicans to "prepare ourselves for a hard-fought, no-quarter struggle to fight for the welfare of America today and tomorrow, and once and for all free this country from deep freezes, mink coats, corruption, favoritism and insincerity."

Army Schedules Record Summer Training Setup

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army announced Wednesday it will conduct this year the biggest summer-camp training program for its reserves in the nation's history.

The department said in a news release that 160,000 reserve officers and enlisted men will be called for 15 days of active duty, for training on a "mandatory" basis. Volunteers and other categories will bring the training total up to about 190,000.

BREAKDOWN
In addition to the 160,000 mandatory trainees—44,000 officers and 116,000 enlisted men plus 11,000 officers holding individual mobilization designations — the summertime total will include:

15,000 officers of the Volunteer Reserve assigned to 15-day tours of summer field training, other active duty or school attendance.
2,000 recruits in the Organized Reserve Corps who are without prior military service. They are authorized to serve a 30-day tour with an active Army training division.

2,677 officers and 2,808 enlisted men who are students at service schools. There will be an average of 60 days of summer schooling for the officers and 30 days for the enlisted men.

FUTURES
6,774 officers and 1,954 enlisted men who are students at Army area schools. They will be selected on the basis of training for future advancement, and their summer courses will average 17 days.

300 officers and 324 enlisted men on the staff and faculty of the officers, 30 days for enlisted men, Army area schools; 60 days for officers, 30 days for enlisted men.

Knife, Fork Talk Slated

"Stories from Here, There and Everywhere" is the speech title affixed a talk scheduled before the Klamath Falls Knife and Fork club Feb. 19, by "Singapore Joe" Fisher.

And Knife and Fork officials here have proclaimed Fisher as perhaps the one man who can really present the facts set forth in this speech title.

Fisher, according to them, is one of the world's top travelers — he's circumvented the globe 14 times. He draws his name from his favorite home, Singapore, where he has been famed as one of the Orient's greatest hosts.

Among the signatures in his guest book are names of such famed figures as Noel Coward, Bernard Shaw, Charlie Chaplin, Amelia Earhart and Lowell Thomas.

The Knife and Fork club meets at the Willard hotel.
