

U.S. Agents Raid Bank Accounts of Housewives

HAPPY — Helen Keller, world-famous blind and deaf author, beams her happiness at recovering her cherished watch. It has raised gold bars on the face and other special construction to enable her to tell time by touch. Miss Keller says it has been "part of her" ever since she received it as a gift when she was 14 years old. Her recent "appeal to the public" brought it back from a New York pawnbroker, at whose shop it was pawned.

Expense Guard Group Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator McClellan, D - Ark., announced Wednesday he will move for an early vote on his bill to set up a superwatchdog committee on federal spending.

"We're going to pass it," McClellan predicted. He contended government agencies which do the spending "too long have held all the cards" in shaping the multi-billion dollar budget.

He said he will move to have the bill called up after the Senate has disposed of the question of admitting Alaska and Hawaii to statehood.

McClellan's bill proposes to set up a Senate House committee with a staff of investigators to make year around studies of government spending.

He said Congress needs the committee as a check against the work of the President's Budget Bureau. That bureau was created to guide the White House in preparing budgets for Congress, but McClellan contends it studies requests "from the spender's view."

"I'm of the opinion it will save the people at least 500 million dollars a year," he said. He estimated it would cost a million a year for a staff of 60 to 100 employees. The Budget Bureau, he said, is seeking $3,850,000 to finance its staff of 449 workers for a year.

TV Almost Nabs Housebreaker

WASHINGTON (AP) — Study this face on your television screen, the announcer said, because this man is wanted for investigation of housebreaking.

Mrs. H. H. Knowles, at home in nearby Alexandria, Va., studied the face. A knock on the door interrupted her. She walked over and looked through the peephole.

"Yipes! Same face!"

Mrs. Knowles called police. The man fled. Police didn't catch him.

U.S. Holding Tax Refunds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Newspapers throughout the nation were credited Wednesday with helping the government refund $2,080,868 in income taxes to 46,970 taxpayers during January.

But the Internal Revenue Bureau says it still is holding $35,634,474 for 1,176,100 persons it has been unable to find. The announcement said a heavy rush for the refunds is expected this month.

The bureau said 461 newspapers carried lists of taxpayers the government couldn't locate to give them refunds accumulated over the years.

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — U.S. Treasury agents Wednesday raided the bank accounts of 11 Marshall housewives who have refused to collect Social Security taxes from their domestic servants.

They collected a total of $57.14 from eight of the women. The other three could not be reached immediately for amounts taken from their checking accounts. The amounts could not be gotten from the banks.

This was the second time the agents have raided the accounts of the housewives. They did it last June for the first quarter of 1951.

Wednesday's collections were for the second and third quarters of 1951.

"The housewives' spokesman, Mrs. Caroline Abney, wife of a Marshall attorney, said the agents appeared at her book store this morning "bowing and scraping and asked if we were still of the same mind."

"I told them," Mrs. Abney said, "that we were each acting individually and I couldn't speak for the whole group, but personally that I was. I told them they could go ahead, that it wouldn't be embarrassing to us but only a reflection against their department."

"We don't consider that we are law violators but that we are American citizens who feel we have a grievance and have taken the Democratic opportunity of asking that it be heard, only to be ignored repeatedly."

The housewives contend it is unconstitutional to ask that they serve as unsalaried tax collectors for the federal government.

Jinx Airport Still Closed

NEW YORK (AP) — Government and airline officials have promised to keep disaster-haunted Newark, N. J. airport closed pending Congressional "and other responsible official investigations."

Another direct result of the New York metropolitan area's fourth airliner crash in two months is an agreement by 25 airlines to create a special safety committee and to hold flights over congested areas to a minimum.

Government and airline officials met here for almost six hours Tuesday in the wake of Monday's smash-up of a National Airlines plane in Elizabeth, N. J.

The toll of that catastrophe rose to 32 with the death of another plane passenger, Miss Sarah Aronwald, 52, of the Bronx, N. Y.

Newsman were barred from the closed meeting, but two persons who attended said there was strong sentiment for eventual reopening of the Newark field, which borders on Elizabeth. The two declined use of their names.

Flight operations at LaGuardia and Idlewild Airfields in the Queens Borough of New York City and at Teterboro, N. J., airport also were discussed at the meeting.

The Port of New York Authority, a two-state agency, operates these fields as well as Newark Airport.

Elizabeth's disaster Monday, killing 37 persons, was the third time a plane using Newark Airport crashed in the New Jersey City.

A total of 118 passengers and residents have died in two months.

This area's other recent airliner accident was last month's dive into the East River by a Boston-New York plane. All 38 aboard were saved by quick rescue work.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, American World War I ace and now president of Eastern Airlines, was appointed head of the 15-member airlines' safety committee. It will hold its first meeting here Friday.
