

Tough Sledding Seen for HIST's Morris Request

By FRANK JENKINS

This dispatch is from the town of Windsor, which surrounds the royal residence that is Windsor castle...

Why could that dispatch have come only from England? Here is why: Because ONLY IN GREAT BRITAIN...

This sixth George wasn't a particularly great man. The thing that endeared him to his people was the universally recognized fact that he was a GOOD MAN...

That was the way George VI was regarded in England, in the United Kingdom and all over Great Britain...

Britain is a bad way. She has a peculiar economy. She must buy raw materials abroad and fabricate them and sell them abroad...

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Hossein Fatemi, 38, right-hand man of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, was shot and wounded Friday by a youthful Moslem terrorist who shouted, "There is no God but Allah..."

NOT FATAL Fatemi was rushed to a Tehran hospital owned and operated by Mossadegh's son, Dr. Gholam Hossein Mossadegh...

GUARDED Police have surrounded Mossadegh's residence since the threats, and the aged premier has not appeared in public for two months...

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman's request for far-reaching investigative powers for Newbold Morris...

So far as could be determined, Congress was being asked for the first time to cloak an individual in the executive branch with virtually unlimited subpoena powers...

NEW POWER This is a power never exercised by any committee of Congress, as far as could be determined...

Mr. Truman told his news conference that he did not know if the executive branch of government had ever sought such powers before...

Four Perish In Home Fire

SOMERVILLE, Mass. (AP) — A fire that killed four people and destroyed a two-story apartment building...

Tuskers Shun Noisy Monks

NEW DELHI (AP) — Three Siamese elephants riding high over India served notice Friday they would not stand any monkey business...

Pigeon Pluck

CHATANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — A cocky and determined pigeon strutted through the door of a downtown restaurant Thursday night...

By The Associated Press Two of the presidential sweepstakes runners were under fire Friday on the touchy question of racial segregation...

Thousands See King's Rites

Price Five Cents — 12 Pages KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1952 Telephone 8111 No. 2711

Sports Bulletins

HOCKEY WIN OSLO, Norway (AP) — The United States nosed out a surprisingly tough Norwegian sextet, 3-2, on Arnold Obs' last period goal...

GERMANY WINS OSLO, Norway (AP) — Dareddevil Andreas Oeller piloted Germany's two-man bobbed to the Olympic and World championships Friday...

OSLO (AP) — The United States clung to a slim lead for unofficial team honors Friday after three events in the sixth winter Olympic Games...

Forum Topic Interest High The coming Monday evening "Build the Basin" radio forum on the question of Klamath Falls city limits extension is exciting unusual interest...

Allies Rain Big Shells On Enemy

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Allied big guns poured a withering barrage of shells into Communist positions in Eastern Korea Friday...

AP Correspondent Stan Carter, who watched the fight from a hillside bunker, said the Reds lost at least 150 men.

RED SUPPORT Before the withering hail of U.N. firepower beat them back, the Reds had powerful artillery and mortar support of their own.

SIX Communist mortar shells hit the hillside where Carter was watching from a command post...

Two Klamath Basin men were winners of the right to purchase homesteads in the Columbia Basin irrigation project at Moses Lake, Wash. Their names were among 38 drawn from a pickle jar yesterday...

Two-TIMER He is a second-time winner. A year ago Lind's name was drawn for the farm on the Columbia Basin project...

There were 2,841 names in the job of the winners were from Oregon and Washington. Others were scattered over the country.

PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

HERFORD SHOW PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

HERFORD SHOW PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

HERFORD SHOW PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

HERFORD SHOW PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

HERFORD SHOW PORTLAND (AP) — The first National Herford Show to be held in the Pacific Northwest will open at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition this year...

TOM HESS

GENE LOOMIS

Assessor Race Entered by 2

Two men filed candidacies this morning for Klamath County Assessor on the Democratic ticket...

There is one Republican candidate out, Austin Hayden, for the $4,500 a year job.

Loomis' filing for the job is his second—exactly two years ago, Feb. 15, 1950, he announced his candidacy for County Assessor...

The Attorney General finally ruled he had been elected for four years, not for the unexpired portion of a previous term...

He has lived in Klamath Falls four years and is one of the owners of the Loomis Glass Company.

Tom Hess is a member of a well-known Henley area family, and lives at Route 2, Box 512.

He has been deputy under Metzker for about three years, doing appraisals on farm land and buildings...

He is a Navy veteran of World War II, married and has three children.

MORE HARDBOARD PORTLAND (AP) — Another hardboard mill now is in production in Oregon, a $12 million-dollar plant of the Oregon Lumber Company at Dees in Hood River County.

Weather FORECAST: Klamath Falls and vicinity, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries Friday and Friday night...

Body Laid In Crypt At Windsor

By The Associated Press WINDSOR, Eng. (AP) — Britain said farewell to George VI Friday in a great outpouring of sorrowful grandeur and buried him here at Windsor with a hymn of triumphal faith.

Elizabeth II, Queen at 25, led the nation's final homage to her father.

For 2 1/2 hours she rode in a horse-drawn carriage behind the coffin to the dirge of 10 bands, while more than a million Britons packed tightly along the chilly streets of London, bowed in reverence.

Then she entrained for Windsor with the body and saw it laid to rest in a crypt of Royalist already holding George III and nine other sovereigns.

The Queen, light-tipped but composed, sprinkled earth on her father's coffin as it sank from sight beneath stired St. George's Chapel in Windsor Castle.

At the close of the 26-minute service the Royal family left the chapel by a side door.

KISSES Elizabeth II and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, kissed the Queen Mother on the cheek just before they stepped into a waiting limousine.

The King's mother, Mary, stayed in Windsor with the weight of her 84 years, and waved her farewell from a window of Marlborough House.

But the widowed Queen Mother Elizabeth was here with the Princess Margaret to hear the choir sing the hymn she and the new Queen had chosen—a hymn of victory, often sung at Easter: "The strife is o'er, the battle done."

"Now is the victor's triumph won..." The Archbishop of Canterbury voiced the Committal: the Church of England assigns to King and commoner alike.

"Earth to dust, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life..."

LOWERED A slab of stone had been laid aside in the floor, and the oak coffin was lowered slowly to the side of the body of the King's brother, the first Prince of Kent, killed in a wartime air crash.

Representatives of nations around the globe joined royalty, nobles and lords in the funeral at St. George's chapel.

There was the Duke of Windsor, who was a king himself when he laid George VI to rest here 16 years ago.

There were Winston Churchill, the servant of four sovereigns; there were seven sovereigns from other countries, Secretary of State Acheson representing President Truman; and the ambassador of the Soviet Union.

There also was Gen. Eisenhower, who led Britons as well as Americans against the Nazis while George VI stood unflinching beside his people in this island Hitler coveted.

At the turn of time, the dignitaries invited to the funeral included the Chancellor of a new Germany.

SILENCE Britain and all the Commonwealth fell silent for two minutes at 2 p.m., the hour of the funeral. Then thousands turned to their radios to hear the service. Earlier, the street processions had been seen on television.

In London, more than a million people from all walks of life, had watched in reverent silence as 150 white-galtered British sailors drew the King's coffin mounted in a gun carriage from Westminster Hall to Paddington Station.

As Queen Mary waved her farewell from Marlborough House, the Duke of Windsor turned in the line of march and saluted his mother. Salutes came also from another son, the Duke of Gloucester, from the Duke of Edinburgh, and the Duke of Kent, the 16-year-old nephew of George VI.

Elizabeth II and the Queen Mother bowed toward the window where Queen Mary watched and checked each contingent in the line of march from the funeral program.

Bureau's Black Market Charges Anger Ranchers

By MALCOLM EPLEY JR. Klamath potato growers last night tossed a few bricks at the Office of Price Stabilization's accusations that Klamath Falls is a center of "vicious black market" activity.

Klamath Falls and Twin Falls, Idaho, have been singled out by the OPS as centers of illegal potato sales activities, which the office said was at the shipper level.

Earlier, Klamath shippers had protested black market offers from "outside operators, almost all of them beyond the local potato industry levels."

Said Pres. Earl Wilson of the Klamath Potato Growers Assoc. at a directors meeting last night: "We consider it unfair to have Klamath potato men directly or indirectly branded with the black market stigma without proof. The potato industry continues to be a whipping boy."

Other growers wanted to know just what constitutes a black market at this level. They refused accusations by government officials and others that growers were holding back shipments of potatoes because they don't like the price ceilings placed on potatoes by OPS order Jan. 19.

INDEFINITE According to County Agent Walt Jenzajewski, shippers lagged because specifications on the ceiling order are indefinite.

For instance, he said, OPS officials in California maintain there is no ceiling to the grower, while the Portland OPS office insists there is only as soon as potatoes are placed in containers.

And growers have been able only to obtain that information in phone conversations; they say the OPS has yet to give them confirmation in black and white.

One shipper said he was unable even to get a clear cut interpretation from the enforcement of officers present here.

"How can enforcement be possible with such vague rules?" he asked.

Another shipper, seeking confirmation and clarification of recent OPS adjustments, received a wire from Kris Bernis, United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Assoc., Washington, D. C., which reported the extra 10 cents for No. 1 potatoes apply only to size A spuds of two pounds or more per bushel.

No confirmation has been received from local OPS sources.

HAN DATE The growers board of directors, meeting last night primarily to set up a potato committee for the forthcoming agricultural conference in Corvallis Mar. 27-28, also recommended that the Oregon-California Potato Marketing Control Agreement Committee lift a ban on size B spuds immediately rather than on April 1 as scheduled.

Idaho has terminated its whole marketing agreement program to allow shipment of more spuds, they pointed out.

The marketing agreement is a grower and shipper-sponsored and operated committee which recommends the standards of potatoes to be marketed from each area to the Department of Agriculture.

Truce Parley Slated Today

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — Truce negotiators will hold an important full dress session at 5 p.m. PST Friday to hear a new Communist proposal for a Korean peace conference.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. negotiator, returned Friday from Tokyo where he has conferred for two days with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and two high ranking officials from Washington.

Staff officers working on prisoner exchange plans reported some slight progress Friday. The session on truce supervision marked time.

Col. Don O. Darrow said it looked as though the Reds were stalling until after the planetary session.

There has been no hint as to what the Communists will suggest in their new plan for a post-armistice peace conference.

TOGETHER BARNES, Eng. (AP) — William Caudie and his wife, both about 70, collapsed and died within a few moments of each other Friday while watching the funeral procession of King George VI on television.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

There was no recommendation for mercy, which made the death sentence mandatory.

Irvin was the last of the four Negroes who were accused of the crime which set off a series of mob demonstrations, shootings, and burnings of Negro homes in Central Florida, and brought about bitter exchanges between Florida officials and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Man Returned To Death Cell OCALA, Fla. (AP) — Walter Lee Irvin is back in the Florida State Prison death house after his second conviction for raping a young white woman. His lawyers plan a new fight to save him from the electric chair.

A jury of 12 white men late Thursday convicted the 34-year-old Negro of helping three other seize the 17-year old girl from her farmer husband July 16, 1949, and raping her.

Ike and Kefauver Draw Racial Attacks

By The Associated Press Two of the presidential sweepstakes runners were under fire Friday on the touchy question of racial segregation, a possibly critical issue in the pre-convention campaigns of both major parties.

They were the Republicans Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the Democratic Senator Estes Kefauver. Both were criticized by a Negro official for what he said was their attitude toward Negroes in the armed services.

Clarence Mitchell, Washington bureau director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said Kefauver once voted for race segregation in the armed forces, and that Eisenhower had told NAACP that Negro soldiers mixed with white "would be at a disadvantage."

The Tennessee's office said Kefauver once backed a proposal to let men in uniform decide whether they wanted to serve in segregated or non-segregated units. No one offered any comment for the general, who has said he would not take part in the pre-convention presidential campaign.

Senator Taft of Ohio was under fire too for a statement that he offered any comment for the general, who has said he would not take part in the pre-convention presidential campaign.

He said (1) workers and farmers deserve government aid, but only to give them equality under a free enterprise system, (2) the GOP won't win by using a "me-too" policy, and (3) the administration's Far East policy is wrong and the Chinese Nationalists should be armed.

Gov. Earl Warren of California, GOP candidate, implied in New York he does not believe Gen. Douglas MacArthur is the man to keynote the Republican convention this July. He said the keynote should not be a candidate, and should not favor any special candidate. MacArthur has been neither confirmed nor denied this.

Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, backing Taft, Eisenhower and Warren for the GOP nomination, said in New York he favors a world-wide program to combat Communism. He said he is for neither MacArthur's "Asia-first" policy nor Eisenhower's reported "Europe-first" attitude in buildup of strength.

In Washington, a sampling of Senate opinion indicated Democrats are sharply divided on whether President Truman should run again. Truman said Thursday he should make a "difficult decision" in making up his mind.

Nine Key Democratic Senators were interviewed by Jack Bell, Associated Press political writer. His count: Two said Truman ought to run, one called him the "most logical candidate," two said he should not run, two predicted he will not, one said he favored Senator Russell (D-Ga.) and one would not comment.

He said (1) workers and farmers deserve government aid, but only to give them equality under a free enterprise system, (2) the GOP won't win by using a "me-too" policy, and (3) the administration's Far East policy is wrong and the Chinese Nationalists should be armed.

Gov. Earl Warren of California, GOP candidate, implied in New York he does not believe Gen. Douglas MacArthur is the man to keynote the Republican convention this July. He said the keynote should not be a candidate, and should not favor any special candidate. MacArthur has been neither confirmed nor denied this.

Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, backing Taft, Eisenhower and Warren for the GOP nomination, said in New York he favors a world-wide program to combat Communism. He said he is for neither MacArthur's "Asia-first" policy nor Eisenhower's reported "Europe-first" attitude in buildup of strength.

In Washington, a sampling of Senate opinion indicated Democrats are sharply divided on whether President Truman should run again. Truman said Thursday he should make a "difficult decision" in making up his mind.

Nine Key Democratic Senators were interviewed by Jack Bell, Associated Press political writer. His count: Two said Truman ought to run, one called him the "most logical candidate," two said he should not run, two predicted he will not, one said he favored Senator Russell (D-Ga.) and one would not comment.

He said (1) workers and farmers deserve government aid, but only to give them equality under a free enterprise system, (2) the GOP won't win by using a "me-too" policy, and (3) the administration's Far East policy is wrong and the Chinese Nationalists should be armed.

Gov. Earl Warren of California, GOP candidate, implied in New York he does not believe Gen. Douglas MacArthur is the man to keynote the Republican convention this July. He said the keynote should not be a candidate, and should not favor any special candidate. MacArthur has been neither confirmed nor denied this.

Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, backing Taft, Eisenhower and Warren for the GOP nomination, said in New York he favors a world-wide program to combat Communism. He said he is for neither MacArthur's "Asia-first" policy nor Eisenhower's reported "Europe-first" attitude in buildup of strength.

In Washington, a sampling of Senate opinion indicated Democrats are sharply divided on whether President Truman should run again. Truman said Thursday he should make a "difficult decision" in making up his mind.

Nine Key Democratic Senators were interviewed by Jack Bell, Associated Press political writer. His count: Two said Truman ought to run, one called him the "most logical candidate," two said he should not run, two predicted he will not, one said he favored Senator Russell (D-Ga.) and one would not comment.

DOING A LITTLE BOOKWORK this morning at the Fred E. Barnett Company were employees Ruby Westfall, 1180 Crescent, and John Anderson, 2633 Vandergrift.