Morse Backs Joint Chiefs
WASHINGTON (AP) — In a Senate speech, Sen. Morse, R-Ore., Thursday denounced attacks on the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
He also hit at what he termed "the growing war clique in the United States which, he said, wants to risk 'a war with Russia.'"
"It is a great public disservice," he said, "in the midst of a partisan campaign to make statements which shake confidence in the leadership of our military men."
Morse did not single out any particular person, nor mention specifically the remark of Sen. Taft of Ohio, a Republican Presidential candidate, that "I have no confidence in the judgment of the present chiefs of staff."
Taft had said at a Seattle news conference that he "certainly would" remove present military leadership if he becomes president and that he also "certainly would make use" of the abilities of Gen. MacArthur, deposed Far East commander.
Morse is a supporter of Gen. Eisenhower for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Schools Ban Fund Drives
PORTLAND (AP) — Fund-raising campaigns will be barred from Portland schools in the future.
The city school board voted Thursday night to ban the March of Dimes, the Red Cross, the Community Chest and other drives from the classrooms.
Directors said too much pressure had been brought on children in the past to contribute to the campaigns.

Arlene Dahl Glad to Stop Playing Sweet Film Roles
HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Guys and Dolls: Arlene Dahl, facing a camera for the first time since she left MGM nine months ago, is hailing her escape from the "sweet little things I had to play."
Playing opposite John Payne in "Caribbean Gold" at Paramount, Arlene took time out to say:
"This girl has fire—it's a characterization — and I am learning more from Director Edward Ludwig than I learned from any other director."
Her blueprints for the future include a movie to be filmed in Spain with hubby Lex Barker, (if Sol Lesser lets him out of his "Parau tree"), and a British musical, "The Third Girl from the Right."
A date with the stork for Arlene and Lex?
"Maybe the next time you see me," she told me, "I'll have some news."

John Howard's back on the sound stages again in "Models, Inc.," as the head of a model agency.
"I am playing John Powers," he confided, "but don't tell anyone."
Once a great lover at Paramount John calls this role a semi-character part. "Director Edward Ludwig found beautiful women all his life and has never married. Confidentially, that's the story of my life," John said.
"The Fighter," a little-known Jack London story, is being filmed at Motion Picture Center as Alex Gottlieb's first independent production.
Before a towering castle, Richard Conte and Lee J. Cobb, as Mexican guerrilla leaders who are trying to overthrow a dictatorship, slowly ride horses in a circle with other revolutionists.
It's Conte's first time on a nag and he has a quick consultation with the wrangler in charge of his horse.
"Don't worry," says the movie equine expert, "our horse knows the script as well as you know it."

Accidental Burn Fatal to Child
PORTLAND (AP) — A 5-year-old girl, whose nightgown caught fire at her home near Lebanon, died in a hospital here Wednesday.
The victim was Ailyn Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Barker of Route 1, Lebanon. The parents said the girl apparently began playing with matches after they left her at home with her brother, Robert, 9, while they attended church services.

Bold Approach To UMT Asked
WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the American Veterans Committee urged Senators Wednesday to approve a "bold approach" on universal military training for 18 year old youths.
Louis C. Pakiser, Jr., of Tulsa, Okla., the AVC's executive director, testified that both UMT and the draft could and should operate together.
He sharply criticized as a "timid approach" a proposal that only 60,000 18-year olds be trained initially and then placed in the reserve subject to later call for active duty.
Pakiser also opposed a proposal voted by the House Armed Services Committee that the UMT trainees not be called to active duty until Congress specifically approves.
"To allow 18 year olds to return to civilian life while older men are required to remain on active duty would be wrong," Pakiser said.

Council to Fight Race Betting
PORTLAND (AP) The Portland Council of Churches will join in the campaign against dog and horse race betting in Oregon.
The Oregon Council of Churches announced last week it would start an initiative measure, to go on the November ballot, to outlaw the betting. The Portland council announced the same decision Thursday.
Now that he's glorified the circus in "The Greatest Show on Earth," don't be surprised if Cecil B. DeMille puts ice skates on his famed riding boots and directs a backstage story of a big traveling ice show.
There's a Mario Lanza listed in the Los Angeles telephone directory who isn't the star. When people call him under the impression he's the film Caruso, he explodes and says he took the name of Mario Lanza long before the star thought about it.
