The Garrulous Gorkys and the Punchy Parks tangle tomorrow night in a tag team match that snarls of unrivaled mayhem of a brand seldom seen at the armory.

BUCK WEAVER ... faces Yorg

where rhubarbs are as common as halos at a church convention. In matching the Gorky brothers—Soldat and Ivan—and the Parks Boys—Herb and Billy—Promoter Mack Lillard has inked a mat battle that would fit in the main event spot of any wrestling arena in the country.

Local grunt-and-groan customers will remember the hectic goings-on of last season when the Gorky clan invaded the local ring.

Even fresher in mind are the antics of the Parks boys who can take care of themselves in the fastest of mat company. Soldat is coming to the rescue of his brother Ivan.

Fans remember the last time Ivan called in his big brother. The results were nothing short of dynamic.

Tonight's match started toward the signing stage last Wednesday night after Ivan lost a scrap to Rumanian Yorg Cretorian.

Ivan said it with knuckles on Herb's chin. Billy was in the audience after his opening bout—but not for long. He broad-jumped into the ring and dumped Ivan with a series of knee apricots.

Herb by the time untangled from the ropes, landed an emphatic right hand on Ivan's puss.

Ivan started yelling for his brother Soldat and didn't stop until Lillard signed the match.

The opener should put the audience in the right frame of mind. It pairs Cretorian and Buck Weaver at 8:30 p.m.

Tulelake beat Bly forfeit

The Malin Townies and the Tulelake Inners finished in a deadlock for the Klamath Basin basketball league title and will meet at a date to be announced to determine the top-seeded spot in the play-offs Feb. 28 and March 1.

Malin carried the tie with a 56-48 win over the Beatty Lakers last night, while Tulelake backed into the tie when Bly forfeited.

Both were make-up games from an early-season snow-out.

League President Harold Hendrickson said the two teams would meet either tomorrow night or next Monday night in Merrill to settle the knot. Both were defeated just once in 11 lifts.

The Jayhawks and Chiloquin finished earlier in a tie for third with finishing 9-2 records. A flip of a coin will probably decide the play-off third and fourth spots.

Jim Conroy paced Malin last night with 16 points.

Ivy League Approves Huge Grid De-emphasis Program

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Football was a de-emphasized major sport in the Ivy League Tuesday, shorn of its pre-season and post-season hoop-la by order of the presidents of the eight schools involved.

Under an agreement announced Monday by the colleges, neither coaches nor players may participate, among other things, in post-season intercollegiate games.

This rules students at Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Princeton, Brown, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania out of the North-South and East-West games.

Nor may Yale's Herman Hickman again coach the North squad as he has for the last two games at Miami, Fla., while Dartmouth's Tuss McLaughry, one of the coaches of the East team in December's Shrine game at San Francisco, can't do it again.

Yale, whose football history is a history of the game itself, kicked off its "sanity code" a ban on spring practice and bowl games.

Last Saturday, the American Council on Education included in its "sanity code" a ban on spring practice and bowl games.

Monday's Ivy agreement has these points:
Abolish so-called football clinics.
Abolish spring football practice because of the peculiar pressures on players and to avoid intensity of athletic specialization in a single sport.

Study ways and means of reducing the number of games scheduled.
Reaffirm the principle of the control of athletics by the academic authorities, to include scheduling, eligibility, the award of scholarships and student aid.
Amend the eligibility rule in the present agreement to include: "Beginning in 1954 no student shall be eligible whose secondary school education was subsidized or whose post-college education is promised by an individual or group of individuals not closely related to the family as a consideration for his attending the college which he now attends."

The Washington Huskies swept up the Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference, championship with a pair of victories over Idaho and advanced from No. 8 to No. 6. The Huskies received nine first place votes and 284 points.

Seattle University, No. 21 in last week's poll, look over the 16th spot.

The top 20 (first place votes in parentheses):
Kentucky (36), Kansas State (16), Duquesne (4), Iowa (7), Illinois (1), Washington (9), Kansas (7), St. John's, St. Louis (1), St. Bonaventure (4), Dayton (7), West Virginia (7), Penn State (1), Seton Hall, Louisville, Seattle, Holy Cross (4), Siena (1), Wyoming, LaSalle (1).

Eight of the 18 men on the Notre Dame basketball squad hail from the state of Illinois.

Suburban's 691-778-778-2244 line captured both team game and series honors, with G.H. Baxter helping the cause with a 224 high game, just a pin better than that rolled by K. Honeycutt, Woolies.

But Parkmor's Charlie Booth had the high series with a 217-173-213-503 line.

Booth is holding a 189 average, season high, followed by Mel Robinson, Woolies, with a 184 and substitute Al Hakenwerth with a 182.

Button Leads

OSLO (AP) — America's Dick Button, showing the same skating mastery that won him the 1948 Olympic and four world titles swept into the lead in the Olympic men's figure skating championship Tuesday as the compulsory school figures were skated.

Austrian Wins

OSLO (AP) — Othmar Schneider of Austria won the Olympic alpine ski race Tuesday by making two runs down the thin-cruised, 508-yard Rosdkeiva course in two minutes flat. Americans failed to place.

Norwegian Shatters World Skating Mark

OSLO (AP) — Amazing Hjalmar Andersen of Norway completed the first consecutive day triple slam in the history of the winter Olympics Tuesday when he won the 10,000 meter speed skating race in world record time.

The sensational 28-year old athlete hero of Norway was clocked in 16 minutes, 45.8 seconds—11.6 seconds better than his listed world mark of 16:57.4 set last year—to win his third gold medal in as many days.

His time was far under the Olympic record of 17:24.2 set by another Norwegian sports hero, Ivar Ballangrud, in 1936 at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany. Ballangrud captured three gold medals that year but not on consecutive days.

The quiet, modest speed merchant raced the 10,000 meters, about 6 1/4 miles, in even faster time ten days ago in an international meet at Hamar, Norway. That clocking of 16:32.6 will be filed for recognition.

Andersen, father of two and the owner of a sporting goods firm in his native Trondheim, won the 5,000 meter race Sunday in the Olympic record time of 8:19.6 and romped off with the 1,500 meter metric mile, 20 yards less than a mile, in 2:20.4 Monday. He did not compete in the 500 meter race, won by Ken Henry of Chicago.
