LATEST NAVY 'CAT' — The Gruman F9F-6 Cougar, latest member of the U.S. Navy fighter plane family, knives through the sky in a test flight. The streamlined jet fighter craft, rated for security reasons in the "over 600 miles per hour" class, is a swept-wing successor to the Panther, first jet to be used in combat by the navy.

PFC ANNE VANDERPOOL, 20, women's army corps, has returned to Ft. Lawton, Seattle, after spending a furlough here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vanderpool, 1535 Eldorado. Anne joined the service April 13, 1951, and is in the record processing department where she handles reports of men home from Korea. Some 70,000 reports have already been processed in Seattle. Anne is signed for overseas service, probably in Japan.

Mother Wins Right to Sons

SALEM (AP)—An Indiana mother won a six-year court fight Wednesday when the Oregon Supreme Court awarded her custody of her two sons, now aged 9 and 11 years.

The Supreme Court, ruling for the first time on the question, held that an order by a court in another state, Indiana, is entitled to full faith and credit in Oregon.

DIVORCE
The mother, now remarried and named Mrs. Helen A. Lorenz, was given a divorce in Indiana in 1945, and was awarded custody of the two boys.

But the father took the sons to Illinois, then to Wisconsin, and finally to Turner, Ore.

It wasn't until the summer of 1947 that she traced the father, Robert W. Royer, to Oregon, and she brought a habeas corpus proceeding in Polk County, Ore., to get her boys back.

She came out here with her new husband and saw her boys, but they didn't recognize her.

APPEAL
Circuit Judge Arlie G. Walker, of Polk County awarded the boys to the father, and the mother appealed.

Wednesday's high court decision, by Justice Walter L. Tooez, reversed Judge Walker.

Royer now is living in West Salem. The Supreme Court order directed the lower court to take the children from the father so the boys can go back to Indiana.

Medo-Land Ice Cream Honored

CORVALLIS (AP)—Champion ice cream makers of Oregon were announced here Wednesday at the annual convention of the Oregon Dairy Manufacturers Association.

Ole Tittland of the Rainier Creamery won the vanilla and chocolate titles. He scored 96 for vanilla and 95 for chocolate.

James H. Dunlap, Medo-Land Creamery, Eugene, topped the strawberry ice cream makers with a score of 95.

The convention will continue through Thursday.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

FOR A SMALL FAMILY this plan 223-T offers a lot of livability in economical construction. Designed by Edward R. Tyler, 585 Macon Road, Hempstead, N.Y., the house covers only about 1,030 square feet. A full basement, nine closets and floor-to-ceiling built-in cabinets in the kitchen provide an abundance of storage space. Front foyer with guest closet and a rear service vestibule with access to basement, kitchen and two closets are features of this plan.

KLAMATH AGENCY

By DARLENE WOLFF

Mary Kirkland, who had worked here as social worker for most of the past two years has been transferred to Parker, Ariz. Her position has not been filled here yet. She left for her new location on Saturday.

Another transfer from the local agency was that of Forester Clyde Pickle, who left last weekend for a new location in Minneapolis, Minn.

New forester here recently is Dwight Patton who with his wife and two months old daughter have moved here from Mississippi although his home is in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wing returned a few days ago from a ten day trip to Portland and Astoria.

Seaman first class Jack Morgan was here on Wednesday with a short stopover on his way from Seattle to a six weeks' training course in San Diego in electronics before he ships out. He was here with his bride, the local nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sours of Springfield have moved to the Agency and are at the present time staying with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sours. Dick is a member of the guard unit in Klamath Falls and must stay within travelling distance of that post. The outfit with which he was working was moving to Washington and it was just too far to travel to Klamath Falls each week.

Wreck Hurts Prove Fatal

PORTLAND (AP)—Robert Butler, 55, Milwaukie, died in a hospital here Wednesday of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Saturday.

Butler was driver of a car that crashed with another car and a truck and trailer. Floyd L. Green, 56, Salem, driver of the other car, suffered a broken breastbone. His wife, Gertrude, 52, suffered face lacerations. Arthur Baumgardner, 54, Oak Grove, a passenger in Butler's car, suffered a fractured pelvis and nose and leg injuries.

Kenneth D. Steckly, 23, Albany, the truck driver, was unhurt.

Butler's death was the seventh in traffic in Portland this year.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. PASTEETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummi, stony, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. (Check "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH today at any drug store.

ELEPHANT FUTURE DEBATED

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP)—Should the Belgian Congo's estimated 100,000 elephants be killed or protected? This question is now the object of a quarrel between local officials and elephant hunters on one side and the local Association for the Protection of Nature on the other side.
