Mysterious Noise Heard

PORTLAND — A thundering noise alarmed southwest Portland and outlying suburbs Wednesday night. The cause still had not been determined Thursday.

Some residents at first believed a jet plane had crashed, but this proved false.

Some thought a meteor had passed over, but no reports of one came from other areas.

A weather observer said it may simply have been a freak crash of thunder. Hail, which usually accompanies thunder, was reported in a few sections, although there were no other indications of an electrical storm.

Eva Peron Pale But Active

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina — Mrs. Eva Peron is taking part in public life again, although she looks somewhat pale as the aftermath of an operation late last year.

She addressed a luncheon meeting Wednesday of delegates to a new Pan-American labor confederation, formed last week along lines first laid down by Argentine President Juan Peron and his wife.

Mrs. Peron told the delegates the world's laborers must join forces to defend their victories.

PARATROOPERS MASS

HONG KONG — The Hong Kong newspaper Wah Kiu Yat Po said Thursday 4,000 newly trained paratroopers have joined 290,000 other Red Chinese troops massed near the Indo-China and Burma borders.
