

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR

A Founders Day Tea was held at the Gilchrist School Library Feb. 12 in observance of the 55th birthday of the National Parents and Teachers Association...

Mrs. Myrtle Hash left the past week to visit at Skiway near Timberline Lodge and then on to Portland and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Frys of Eugene last week were Mrs. Cap Jessup Sr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Masten accompanied by Darlene Sperry attended the funeral services for young John Gearhart of LaPine at Redding, Calif., on Thursday.

Celebrating a double birthday in Chemult last week were Mrs. Cap Jessup Sr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Instead of playing Canasta as had been planned, the group decided to organize a Civic Improvement Club which has been in the planning stage for sometime.

An evening Valentine Party was held at the home of Mrs. George Bourne on her birthday. Mrs. Sally Damon was the hostess.

Mrs. Grant Damon left for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Ida Chapman of Hornbrook, Calif.

GIRL SCOUTS

Kay O'Donahue of Henley was elected president of the Girl Planning board of Girl Scouts last Sunday at a meeting attended by 50 Girl Scouts and leaders.

The Girl Planning board meeting was held from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Fremont school Auditorium.

Mrs. Palmer Gunderson, Mrs. Walter Behn and Mrs. Gordon Loomis spoke to the first group of Girl Planning board members and Juliet Lowe representatives.

Mrs. Howard Listoe was in charge of the presidents and vice presidents group; Mrs. Ellis Matthews, the secretaries and treasurers.

Mrs. Emil Albrecht discussed the cookie sale to begin March 3 with the third group.

Assisting Kay O'Donahue on the planning board will be board members elected at the meeting.

Board members will meet March 22 to discuss the next Girl Planning board meeting to be held April 26 in Fremont school.

A junior camp committee was also chosen. Committee members are Elise Nitschelm, Julie Harnden, Viodine Olsen, Patsy Patterson, Florine Wamstead, Helen Carlson, Susan Ferrill, Sharon Whitlock, Arlene Tompkins, and Jeanne Wamstead.

Mrs. Grant Damon left for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Ida Chapman of Hornbrook, Calif.

Mrs. Dorothy Marquess left last week for a two week stay in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddox and children moved to Chemult the past week. Mr. Maddox is employed by Mr. and Mrs. Williams as dinner cook at their cafe.

MANZANITA CHAPTER 172

A Valentine party was enjoyed by members and guests of Manzanita Chapter 172, OES, after the regular meeting on Friday evening Feb. 15, held at the IOOF hall.

Worthy Matron, Vera Fritsch and Worthy Patron, John Larsen presided at the meeting.

John Stanley, past junior patron, was introduced and escorted to the East.

The altar was draped in memory of two Grand officers: Darwin Bristow, worthy grand patron in 1902-03, and Dr. June Martin, worthy grand matron in 1943-44.

After the meeting everyone was given a valentine as a ticket to the party held in the dining room which was gay with hearts and cupid.

Tables were decorated with lovely dolls framed in lacy red hearts. Valentine place cards entitled the holder to prizes of valentine mail and packages distributed by Everett Behn as mailman.

Refreshments were served by Iona May Wells, Dora K. Austin, Helen McCormack and Blanche Metler.

An invitation was extended for the next meeting which will feature a curio shop.
