

Korean Fight Grinds on Into its 21st Long Month

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The Korean war ground into its 21st month Monday. There was virtually no fighting to mark the date.

Heavy clouds and snow grounded most Allied warplanes. Only a few fighter bombers went out on rail cutting missions.

Fifth Air Force planes flew only 180 sorties Monday, far under the daily average.

Victim Comes To Bandit

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richard Brauder was getting home in the wee hours of the morning. In front of his house he noticed his brother's car. Sitting in the driver's seat was an unfamiliar figure.

"What are you doing in that car?" he asked.

"Just waiting for somebody like you to come along. Hand it over," was the answer.

He told police the man took his wallet containing $10 and a wrist-watch before running off.

HIGHBROW PROGRAM

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Hebrew radio station, "The Voice of Israel," is going to introduce a new program on a special wave-length for somewhat higher brows. This is part of a general rejuvenation scheme initiated by Moshe Pearlman, general director of all Israel government information services. He has promised to do everything "to end boredom on the air."

South Korean and American Mustang pilots and Marine Corsair pilots cut North Korean rail lines at 13 places.

South African Mustang pilots reported they killed an estimated 75 Reds in an attack on a Communist billeting area.

American Mustang fliers said they destroyed or damaged 31 Communist troop or supply shelters.

Reports from scattered points along the 155-mile front indicated the usual pattern of recent fighting—probes, patrols and a few brief clashes.

Carrier based Marine planes from the USS Bairoko made saturation assaults on Red supply buildings and rail lines near Chinnampo on Korea's west coast. Other Marine aircraft hammered targets on the east coast.

The battleship USS Wisconsin returned to the Kamsong-Kesong area of Northeast Korea and laid 16-uch shells on Red troop installations.

Other Allied warships ranged the west coast in attacks on Communist positions.

A delayed Naval report identified three Allied ships which helped drive back a Red attack on Yank Island Wednesday.

The Navy said the destroyer USS Shelton, the minesweeper USS Endicott and the New Zealand patrol frigate Taupo sank 15 sampans, damaged numerous others and wounded an estimated 70 per cent of the retreating Reds.
