Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Leyva returned recently from Lexington, Ore., where they spent a few days visiting their son, Gar, and family at the Lexington Air Field, where they now live. Gar has been appointed by the Oregon State Board of Aeronautics as an industrial flight examiner at any base of operations in Oregon.
The regular session of Grange 754 was held Saturday, Feb. 23, followed by a dance.
Mrs. George Carlon entertained the guild members to a Valentine party, Feb. 14, when the group met at her home for their regular meeting. Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Ruth Graves, president; Mrs. Mae Leyva, vice-president; Mrs. Kathleen Carlon, secretary-treasurer. The Guild will sponsor a card party at the Grange hall Feb. 29. Following the business meeting the guests were seated at a beautifully appointed table suggestive of the Valentine motif. Dessert and coffee were served. The next meeting will be held at the Summer Lake Lodge with Mrs. Ruth Graves as hostess.
Mrs. James Foster had the misfortune to wreck her car enroute to Lakeview two weeks ago where she was taking her children to the dentist. It is assumed she struck an icy spot on the highway and overturned her car in the ditch. We are happy to report that no one was injured.
