What Is Your Opinion?

Young people, previous opinion polls show, are considered our greatest potential resource. How they develop and mature has a definite effect on what Amer-ica will be tomorrow. But they are human, many of them already well educated and well posted individuals. Can tomorrow's adults become today's active participants in Democracy? Can the great force of youth be directed to constructive use?

How Can Youth Best Contribute to Building the

Navy Sticks To Explosive Tests In Pend Oreille

WASHINGTON & — The Navy lefinitely plans to go ahead with explosive tests in Lake Pend the explosive tests will be on a prelile. Idaho, an official said vednesday.

Numerous protests against the explosions possibly equivalent in lorce to three steks of dynamite vegosiate expressions against.

proposed experimental explosions in the take have been received by Congressional members from Idabe and Washington. Magnuson said Kimball told him

The Navy official told a reporter that no information could be re-leased on the size of the explosive charges that will be used.

The tests will be used.

The tests will have to do with

"the safety of men and ships at sea." the spokesman said.

Navy Secretary Kimball wrote Idaho that local authorities are thoroughy familiar with the Navy's plans and have agreed that the tests are in the national interest.

interest.

Sen. Welker (R.-Idaho) could not be reached Wednesday for comment.

The office of Sen. Magnuson (D.-Wash.) said he has received about 75 letters objecting to the forthcoming explosive tests.

Grass Ranch Sale Told

ONTARIO, Ore. # A new livestock feeding company here will take over 15,000 acres of grass and hay land on the G. A. Masteron ranch.

Masterson, widely known Juntura

Masterson, widely known Juntura and Westfall cattleman, will sell his 1,350-animal hereford here here Friday, and the new company of which he is half owner, will buy 2,000 head of young steers for grazing on his tand.

Owner of the other half of the new firm named Oregon Feeding Company is the Oregon Frozen Foods Company. Its by-products and waste materials will be used in the final fattening of the steers which will graze on the Masterson ranch during the grass season. After the grass season, the steers will be brought to the George Carpenter feed yards which the frozen foods company bought last week.

ROADS OK

SALEM (h — Pavement was bare Thursday on all Oregon highways except for a few icy spots at Warm Springs Junction, Meacham and Seneca, the State Highway Commission reported.
