Hot Rod Clubs To Enter Race

PORTLAND (AP) — Nine hot-rod clubs have entered some 50 automobiles in a 25-mile run out of Portland Sunday.

Sanctioned by the Northwest Timing Association, the run will be judged on the basis of best time within legal speed limits and safety in the light of existing conditions.

Participating clubs: Pacers, Portland; High Lifters, Corvallis; Road Kings, Eugene; Dicers, Salem; Marauders, Newberg; Ducks, Springfield; Dusters, Cottage Grove; Slow Pokes and Chokers, Vancouver, Wash.

WORSE

SALEM (AP) — The condition of Walter M. Pierce took a turn for the worse Friday, Salem Memorial Hospital said.

The 90-year-old ex-governor and former congressman has been ill for two weeks. The hospital said he had a fair night, but that his condition now is poor.

North America's second largest waterfall is believed to be the Grand Falls of the Hamilton River at the edge of the Labrador Plateau.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John Chapple of Ashland, Wis., national president of "Fighters for MacArthur" Friday wired F. E. Epton of Portland he was confident Gen. Douglas MacArthur would accept a draft to seek the Republican presidential nomination.

Epton, who has filed petitions placing MacArthur's name in the Oregon primary, said this week he would not withdraw them even if the general asked him to do so. Chapple said he had congratulated Epton for that stand.

The Peshigo forest fire in Wisconsin in October, 1951, covered 1,280,000 acres and caused the death of about 1,500 persons.

Chapple was here on a speaking trip. He said he would be in Oregon before the May 18 primary election.

CHAINS NEEDED

SALEM (AP) — Motorists should carry chains over the Wapinitia Cutoff at Government Camp and on the Old Oregon Trail at Meacham, the Oregon Highway Commission warned Friday.

The commission said there is packed snow on both roads, but that other roads are bare.
