

Outnumbered US Sabres Blast Red MIG's From Sky; Patrols Head Deeper Into South Area

SEUL, Korea (AP)—Outnumbered American Sabre jets shot down two Communist MIG-15 jets Monday and damaged five others as an estimated 250 Red fighters swept south of the Yalu.

The Sabres tangled with the MIGs in four separate battles. The two Red jets the Air Force said were shot down boosted to 200 the number of MIGs destroyed by Fifth Air Force planes in Korea, a spokesman said.

Some of the Communist jets streaked far south of their usual haunts, almost to the battle line. Two MIGs attacked a pair of propeller-driven F51 Mustangs south of the North Korean capital, Pyongyang, but both of the Mustangs hedge-hopped safely back to base, the Fifth Air Force said.

Both kills came in afternoon battles—one a 10-minute dogfight between 23 Sabres and 100 MIGs and the other a five-minute clash between 27 Sabres and more than 60 MIGs.

Along the scarred battlefield, Allied forces restricted action to patrol scouting, Sunday an Allied tank force muscled a two-prong squeeze on Chinese hill positions northeast and northwest of Chonwon, in Western Korea.

The tankers reported 25 Communist bunkers wiped out and eight damaged. No tanks were reported lost.

B-26 light bombers worked over a key road and railroad bridge near Yangdok, Yangdok is a main hub on the important Pyongyang-Wonsan road along which enemy supplies are shuttled.

In operation Rat Killer against Communist guerrillas in South Korea, Republic of Korea soldiers reported 11 Reds killed and 17 taken prisoner Friday and Saturday.

Fort Klamath
By MYRTLE WIMER
Friends here as well as elsewhere will be interested to learn that Mrs. Edna Pomeroy was transferred on Tuesday, Feb. 26, by ambulance plane from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland to the Community Hospital in her home city of Medford. Accompanying her mother on the plane trip was a daughter, Mrs. Joan Nelson, and a second daughter, Mrs. Buret Griffin, also a resident of Medford. According to word received here by Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, although Mrs. Pomeroy is very seriously ill, she greatly enjoys hearing from old friends, and those desiring to send cards or messages to this pioneer of the Wood River valley may reach her in care of the Community Hospital, Medford, Ore. An unusual bit of news is that after seeing her mother safely to the hospital in Medford, her daughter, Mrs. Nelson, who was an expectant mother, gave birth to a child the following day, Wednesday—whether son or daughter is not known here as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Thorpe Sr. have returned from a trip to San Pablo, Calif., where they visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Thorpe Jr. and son Jackie.

After visiting here several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Randall returned Thursday to their home at Klamath Falls. He is Mrs. Edward's brother.

Al Lewis left for Portland on Wednesday, and before leaving on the trip, told friends here that he will return to Fort Klamath a better man than when he departed March 1 in Portland. Al is mechanic for the Modoc Lumber Co. in its 7-mile division logging operations west of here, and details of the wedding, etc., will come later when the information is available here.

Mr. and Mrs. Guss A. Page left by train Wednesday from Klamath Falls, bound for San Francisco, where Mrs. Page will receive medical treatment. Before returning, they plan to visit at San Anselmo with Mrs. Page's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leone.

Mrs. Lyle Bressler visited Thursday in Astoria and returned to the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. "Jerry" Sisemore and daughter JoAnn.

Of interest to her many friends in this valley will be the good news that Mrs. Albert Bricco has returned from Portland and is much improved as a result of medical care received there. She is in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Detroit, her brother-in-law and sister. Mrs. Bricco is also the sister of Mrs. Jack Thomas of Ft. Klamath and a former local resident.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. "Mike" Williams, their daughters Enid, Martha and son Jay, left Friday on an extensive trip which will take them to South Bend, Ind., where they will take possession of a new car. The first leg of the journey was made by pickup to Bend, then by stage to Twin Falls, Ida., where they planned to visit his brother and family before boarding a plane for the trip to South Bend. The return trip will be made of course in the new car, and included on the itinerary are stops at Mrs. Williams' birthplace in South Dakota which she has not seen for many years, and also visits with his relatives in his native state of Missouri. During the absence of the owners, their ranch here is in charge of his brother, Bill.

PREDICTS PEACE — Marshal Josip Boz Tito of Yugoslavia, in an exclusive interview with Helen Fisher, United Press correspondent (left), at Belgrade, said he does not think there will be a new war. Later, through official Yugoslav news channels, Tito proposed that both Yugoslavia and Italy renounced their claims to Trieste and convert it into a jointly administered free territory.

IN SHADOW OF DEATH — Blonde, Blue-eyed Virginia Adams, 17-months, a victim of a malignant cancerous growth on a main artery, is embraced by her sorrowful mother, Mrs. Louise Adams. The child, who is expected to die shortly, plays happily at her Philadelphia home, unaware of her misfortune.

BUD CHANDLER
Chandler To Head Radio Association

Henry J. (Bud) Chandler, manager of radio station KFLW, has been elected president of the Oregon State Broadcasters Association during the annual meeting held Friday and Saturday in Eugene.

He replaces Ted Cooke, KOIN, Portland, who became chairman of this year's Board of Directors.

Sen. Wayne L. Morse was principal speaker.

S. W. McCready, KUGN, Eugene, was elected vice president, and Joe Schertler, KEX, Portland, was retained as secretary-treasurer.

Board members include: Chet Wheelern, KWIL, Albany; Tom Becker, KNPT, Newport and Dick Brown, KPJZ, Portland.

The association, representing 44 Oregon radio stations, unanimously approved a plan to employ on a joint basis with the University of Oregon an executive secretary who would maintain a fulltime office and hold a professorship in radio.

Target date, Chandler said, is mid-summer for the setting up of this plan.

Chandler has been with the Southern Oregon Publishing Co. for 16 years, coming here to set up KFLW after a number of years as chief engineer at KRNR. Rose-

Propst Family Arrives Home
Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Propst and two children, Patricia and Mike, have returned from Guam where Propst, serving with the navy, spent 18 months. Mrs. Propst and children were with him for eight months.

Propst, clerk in the postoffice returned to his position March 1.

Mrs. Propst, who liked living on Guam, taught in the territorial George Washington High school during her stay on the island. Classes were held in "elephant" quarters built, open on one side except for screening. Some 1400 enrolled students were all natives except 140 state-side children. Electricity was installed in the building for the first time on the last day Mrs. Propst taught.

They returned on the USS Shank, ship that also brought home Captain Walter C. Van Emons, former Klamath resident with whom Propst attended school here in Klamath Falls.

Sweeper, Car In Underpass Wreck
A city street sweeper and an auto were involved in an accident about 3:20 a.m. today at the Main Street underpass.

Driver of the car, J. D. Bagley, 29, 220 S. 4th, was slightly injured.

The sweeper was operated by D. S. Chrowl, 53, of Midland. It was moving north in the middle of the street when Bagley's car struck it from the rear.

FARM MEET
The Klamath-Lake National Farm Loan Association has scheduled its annual stockholder's meeting for this Saturday at the Winema hotel, Secy-Treas. Earl Hamaker has announced.

A complimentary luncheon is to be served at noon, Hamaker said, with a short program and business meeting to follow.

burg. He became KFLW manager, and subsequently supervisor of the company's radio interests in Medford, Roseburg and Klamath Falls. KFJL Mgr. Dick Maguire also attended the meeting.

Minstrel Show Repeat To Be Held
MERRILL — A repeat performance of the Mt. Laki Community church choir minstrel show will be held in the Merrill High school gym on the evening of March 12. The Merrill Library club is sponsoring the performance, and tickets at $1 for adults and $2.50 for children, may be obtained from any member of the club.

The show begins at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served afterwards.
