STATE TICKET

The Klamath Falls-Crater series—with a ticket to the state tournament at stake—opens Friday night on Pelican Court.

The second game shows on the Crater floor Saturday night. If a rubber game is necessary, it is billed for Monday night on a neutral court.

Ashland Saturday night on a neutral court.

Ashland Saturday night opened with the same ball control strategy that came close to paying off Friday night.

But the Pels. after one-quarter of frustration, broke up the Grizdles' freeze play in a hurry.

The Pels held a 3-2 lead after one quarter of lay. Then two tipins by Ralph Carroll and two floorlength steal capers by Ray Bell broke the game wide open and the Pelicans held a 15-2 lead barely into the second frame.

NO CHOICE

That left Ashland with nothing to do but run with the Klamath club in an attempt to get back in the ball game. The Pels made a rout of it the rest of the way.

Ashland didn't hit from the floor in the first helf and trailed 5-19

Ashland didn't hit from the floer the first half and trailed 5-19 the half, managing to connect or five points from the charity

Carroll finished high with 17. Bell scored 12. Ted Tenney was high for Ashland with 8.

Crater comes to Klamath Falls with a 17-4 record. Crater is a consolidation of Cen-tral Point and Gold Hill high schools, and students from five oth-er non-high school districts.
