Fremont, Roosevelt In Cage Finals

Fremont and Roosevelt tangle to-morrow, 4:30 p. m., on a neutral court yet to be named for the grade school Class B basketball

By The Associated Press

Its still a Portland race as Oregon high school basketball teams head into the home stretch before the annual state tournament in Eugene, March 18-22.

Three strong Portland teams still dominate the weekly Associated Press high school basketball poll of the state's sportswriters and broadcasters.

Central Catholic again leads the poll, winning 10 first-place votes and 118 points in the balloting. This is the seventh time Central has led the list as the No. 1 prepters in Oregon. The Rams have lost only one of 22 games this season.

Lincoln and Cleveland, tied for first place in the Portland Public sector of the poll. Each team received 98 points in the voting, although Lincoln got two first-place votes and Cleveland none.

Marshfield again was named as district playoff this week—as do most other teams in the state.
