PELS DRILL FOR COMETS

Crater High, principally a sophomore club that majors in speed, challenges the Klamath Falls Pelicans for a Class A state tournament berth in a Dist. 4 playoff series that opens Friday night on Pelican Court.

The Comets lack height and bench strength but they take up the slack in speed, at least enough to win the Dist. 4 Little Three Title (against Illinois Valley and Eagle Point) and notch an over-all 17-4 record for the season.

Forward Delbert (Punky) Monroe is a six-foot senior. All the other starts—Forward Herb Weber, Center Bob King, and Guards Gordon Carrigan and Larry Bigham—are sophomores, as is Bill Boye, who sees a good share of duty at center along with King.

Monroe is the kingpin of the club, a fine backboard man and fair scorer. Carrigan and Bigham make the plays and do the bulk of scoring along with Weber.

VENICE, Fla. (AP)—The Venice Gondolier, a weekly newspaper, last week printed a sports story about the hometown's basketball team reaching the finals of an arena basketball tournament at Punta Gorda.

The facts were straight with one exception, reported the Gondolier this week. The tournament was held three years ago.

The newspaper explained the team's coach had left the wrong score book at its office.
