Milkman Spoils Long-Laid Plans Of Prison Diggers

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—The milkman came and spoiled visions of freedom for some frustrated inmate penitentiaries.
 The as yet unidentified felon was only 30 feet from freedom Monday after a month of laboriously digging a 100 foot long tunnel when the prison milk truck sank through their escape hatch—

Juries Balk Over Crime Probe Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. McGrath's national racketeering survey has run into some difficulties as a result of questions raised by U.S. judges on how far federal grand juries can legally go in traditionally digging a 100 foot long tunnel when the prison milk truck sank through their escape hatch—

This Job Came The Hard Way

LONDON (AP)—A determined Scotsman, arrested for trying to burgle into Prime Minister Churchill's house at 10 Downing Street, finally got what he went after—the promise of a job.
 John Scobie, 26-year old laborer, had to do some fast talking, however, after bobbies took him in Tuesday on charges of insulting behavior and using insulting language.

Sturgeon Bring $211 To State

PORTLAND (AP)—The State Fish Commission is $211 richer Wednesday as a result of its Tuesday caviar and sturgeon auction.
 The fish, containing 94 pounds of roe from which caviar is made, were killed in blasting in the Columbia River at The Dalles where a dam is being built.

Young Demos Ask Elfstrom Ouster

PORTLAND (AP)—Multnomah County young Democrats think that State Liquor Commissioner chairman Robert Elfstrom, a candidate for the legislature, should resign.
 At a meeting Monday night the organization called on Gov. McKay to fire Elfstrom, a Republican, if he did not quit voluntarily. The group said a member of a state commission should not engage in partisan politics by running for office.

Hobby Show Draws Praise

MALIN—Considered by many to be the most interesting meeting of the Malin Parent Patrons Club was their Hobby Show, which they held at their last meeting.
 The Club is deeply indebted to the Klamath Art Association members who came from Klamath Falls to display their talented work. Their exhibits included oil paintings, silk screening, hand designed greeting cards and wrapping paper, weaving, photographic tinting and textile painting.

Tulelake PTA Scores Success

TULELAKE—More than forty tables were in play the evening of March 3 at the annual high school PTA card party in the high school.
 Cash from the party is used for school recreation activities. Prizes went to the following—bridge, Edith Pryor, Roy Coyner; pinocle, Ruth Dobson, Ona Hazney; adult canasta, Phyllis Smith, W.H. Weitkamp; young people's canasta, Linda Mullins, Robert Terry.

German Power Battle Flares

BERLIN (AP)—West Germany cut off electric power deliveries to the Russian zone Wednesday in reprisal for the stoppage of eastern current to West Berlin.
 The two zones had each supplied 384,000 kilowatt hours daily to the other.
 The Soviet-controlled East Berlin Power Company shut off electric deliveries to West Berlin Tuesday, giving "economic difficulties" in the east as the reason.

German Power Battle Flares

Several thousand West Berlin families were without current for about 45 minutes after the stoppage.
 West Berlin officials said the city could do without the power from the east and that no restrictions on power consumption would be necessary.

The next PTA meeting has been changed from March 12 to March 11 due to conflict with the Community Concert. Klamath Falls Future Homemakers of America will present the program. Margaret Ann Takacs is president.

A group of square dancers from the high school danced after the card games.

Tax Asked For Musical Support

PORTLAND (AP)—Portland voters will be asked to approve a 15-100ths mill property tax to finance the city's musical organizations.

The tax is expected to raise about $82,000 annually.

Enough signatures to put the initiative measure on the ballot were filed Tuesday with City Auditor Will Gibson.
