Dog Show To Be Held Here

Local purebred dogs will have a chance at purely local competition this Sunday at the Fairgrounds during the annual Klamath Kennel Club AKC (American Kennel Club) sanctioned non-point dog show. Entries may be made by phoning 2-1456 or 4356 this week, or by applying at the door before 12:30 p. m. Sunday.

Papers on entries are not necessary, according to KKC Pres. Forrest Albert, and first prize winners will be awarded parchment certificates showing the win made.

Proceeds from the show will go to trophies from KCC-Kiwanis sponsored dog show slated for Aug. 31 at the Fairgrounds. More than 250 dog exhibitors from throughout the United States participated in last year's big summer show.

At this week's show trophies are to be presented for best and second best child handlers, and a special trophy, offered by Anna Young, Portland, will go to the best local Pekingese is show.

Show judge will be Mrs. Helen Maring, Portland.

Probable judging order will be as follows: Albert announced starting at 12:30 p. m.: Toys, non sporting, working, hounds, terriers, sporting, best in variety groups, children's handling best and second best dogs in show.

A concession will be set up, and an admission will be charged—50 cents for adults, 25 cents for students and nine cents for children under 2 years of age.

Merrill Hi News

By YVONNE CONNER and EDNA MAE REEVES

The basketball boys and their parents were honored at a buffet Supper Tuesday evening, given by the P.H.A. girls. Arlene Lemler played a piano solo, Velma Fox sang a solo accompanied by Arlene Lemler. A skit "Just Basketball" was given by Martha Beasley, Dolores Conner, Betty Icenbier, and Yvonne Conner. Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Last Thursday evening six Senior High girls presented their entries in the speech festival to the P.P.A. Darlene Barkhurst and Joan Linrade gave humorous readings, Mary Qualls who is entered in oratory, used as her topic the life of Queen Elizabeth II. In the radio division Janet Diederoff, Frances Ebert, Mary Qualls, and Yvonne Conner are entered. They talked on soil conservation.

The Sophomores are planning an assembly for Thursday. It is going to be a humorous imitation of the Presidential election of 1952. Their candidates for the president of U.S. and Texas are Mike Geraghty and Dick Fields. We're sure everyone will enjoy themselves at this assembly.

Monday evening was Bingo night sponsored by the Freshman. They reported that everyone there had a fine time.

The Me He Ma Annual went on sale Monday. Everyone is urged to buy their now or they may not get them, for they are going fast.

Merrill High was honored to have Dolores Conner, Connie Reeves, Evelyn Oaks, and Darlene Ripple in the extravaganza given by the Main Mariners, at the Broadway Hall, February 28 and 29. The show will also be presented at Mills auditorium Friday evening Mar. 7.

Merchants Get Flag Standard

A uniform plan for displaying the American flag on downtown streets on important holidays was presented to the Klamath Merchants Association at its meeting Wednesday morning at the Winema hotel by Charles Hahn for the American Legion.

The proposed plan would place flags along the sidewalk fronts. Presently owned flags would be added to for complete downtown coverage. Costs would be met by merchants; details and handling would be by the American Legion.

The merchants authorized a committee to meet the Legion committee and work out details.

The matter of stores remaining open or closing on Armistice Day was withheld from vote until word is received as to whether the Bend-Klamath high school football game, to be played in Klamath Falls this year, is scheduled for afternoon or evening.

Plans are nearly complete for the Spring Opening shows on March 14. It was reported by Bob Fredrickson.

Carl Sparks presided in the absence of Pres. Frank Drew.

CAA Identification Cards Necessary

Administrator Charles F. Horne, Civil Aeronautics Administration, warned pilots, mechanics and all airmen they must have an official identification card on their person at all times while performing duties.

The warning came apparently as a national security measure.

Horne said CAA safety agents would institute a far reaching check program.
