

WHEN SOLDAT GORKY finished with this operation, Yorg Cretorian's well-groomed mustache looked like a dishrag that has worked overtime. Cretorian, angered when his foliage was tampered with, gave Soldat his lumps. But the Rumanian and Kurt Von Poppenheim lost the tag team match to the Gorky brothers, Soldat and Ivan, before a packed house last night at the armory.

Russians Win With Assist from Dusette

Yorg Cretorian is nursing lumps on his chin today and looking back to a loss he and Kurt Von Poppenheim received from the Gorky brothers—all because the Rumanian tried to beat a craftsman at his own trade. The rematch of the tag brawl stood at one fall apiece when Cretorian made his one big mistake. Yorg and Kurt were giving Ivan Soldat a double dose of knuckles in the corner and appeared to be well on their way to victory. Every time Soldat Gorky went to his brother's rescue, he'd find himself looking at the insiders' shoes on the business end of Cretorian's boot.

Canada Icemen Miffed

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—Canada, the 1952 champion, may have played in its last Olympic hockey competition. Doug Grimston, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, arrived home from the Oslo games Thursday and said he will recommend Canada drop out of the event. "There is no use carrying on any longer," he said. "European nations, in particular, will not agree to uniform rules. As a result, every game is a confusion of shinny, with a sprinkling of hockey." He also said he had an exchange with the Russians. After the Russians told the press Canada had plotted with the United States so the Americans could finish second, he said: "I told them they were crybabies and that's quite a feat getting it over to them, as they use an interpreter who speaks only French."

WSC Loses In Hawaii Opener

HONOLULU (AP)—A ragged Washington State College basketball team missed baskets consistently and lost its opening game of a Hawaiian tour Wednesday night to Universal Motors, 64-50. The Cougars seemed unable to cope with the Hawaiian zone defense. They trailed from the start but lagged only a point at the half, 32-31. Glen Kinney, former Oregon State College guard now with the Universals, was high with 21. Top scorer for WSC was Eric Roberts with 13.

60-SECOND TASTE TEST SHOWS HOW TO Be your own whiskey expert!

1. Have 1/4 oz. of Calvert put in one glass and the same amount of any other whiskey in another — without knowing which is which.

2. Sniff one brand for aroma. Taste it critically for smoothness. Swallow carefully to judge its freedom from bite, burn or sting.

3. Taste the other whiskey in the same analytical way — then pick the one that really tastes better to you.

WORDS CAN'T DESCRIBE the big difference in whiskeys... the difference in smoothness, mellowness and freedom from bite. So we say compare Calvert with any other whiskey and let your own taste decide.

We're sure you will prefer Calvert Reserve, because its taste is determined by folks like you who make over 50,000 taste tests a year.

But, after your own test, if you still prefer another brand, stick with it. Fair enough?

9 NCAA BERTHS REMAIN

By The Associated Press

The regular season action among the college basketball teams is practically over and only seven of the 16 teams which will play in the NCAA tournament have been decided Thursday.

Kentucky, Illinois, Texas Christian, St. Louis and Wyoming, all champions of their conference, are in, along with Santa Clara and Oklahoma City University, two Western at-large teams.

That leaves nine selections still to be made for the tournament that begins in four cities on March 21.

EAST

The western regional play will start at Kansas City and Corvallis, Ore. At Kansas City will be Texas Christian, St. Louis and the Big Seven and at Corvallis, the Big Seven and the Big Ten conference champions. The Pacific Coast Conference and Skyline winners will meet Santa Clara and Oklahoma City, selected at large, at Corvallis. The semi final and final rounds will be played at Seattle March 23-26.

The two-out-of-three scramble for the right to represent the Pacific Coast Conference gets under way Friday with Northern Division winner Washington playing UCLA, the Southern section victor.

QUALIFIERS

An for the NAIB tourney which opens Monday at Kansas City, Ind. is along with Santa Clara and Oklahoma City University, two Western at-large teams.

Washington Odds-on Favorites in Playoff

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Washington's great basketball team, winner of 24 of 28 games this season, is due here Thursday for a two-hour workout in the UCLA Bruins' crackerbox gymnasium.

The teams play a three-game series for the Pacific Coast Conference title Friday, Saturday and Monday if necessary.

Washington, the Northern Division champ, is an odds-on favorite, and holds two decisive victories over UCLA during the exhibition season.

BATTLE

UCLA figures to make a battle of it, nevertheless. The Bruins always have been tough to beat on their home floor. They have lost only three times in 48 games over the last four years, and they have won the Southern Division title the last four years and hold one outright PCC title.

Coach Johnny Wooden, while admitting that home surroundings should help his team, nevertheless rates Washington as the Nation's No. 1 team, and his boys have played some of the best, Kentucky Illinois included.

HEIGHT

Led by the 6-foot, 7-inch Bob Houbregs at center and Frank Guinness, sensational forward, the Huskies play the rebound to perfection, and their height is going to be a big factor in the series here.

Wooden, who played his basketball in the Big Ten Conference, as did Coach Tippy Dye of Washington, plans to start Jerry Norman and Don Bragg at forwards; John Moore at center, and Don Johnson and Ron Livingston at guards.

Forrest Twogood, University of Southern California coach whose Trojans lost all four games to the Bruins, declined to pick the winner of the playoff series, but he said he believes Washington is due for "big surprises".

Washington whipped the Bruins in the playoff in Seattle last year, taking the first two games. This is a better UCLA team, but so are the Huskies a better outfit.
