

Prayer Rings The Globe Church Women Gather

The 66th annual World Day of Prayer, sponsored February 29 by the Klamath Falls council of Church Women brought a representative gathering of women from other local churches to the First Presbyterian church for the meeting.

Mrs. Lawrence Birk, Council president gave the address of welcome and introduced Mrs. L. K. Phelps, chairman of the day.

The opening address was by Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., First Presbyterian pastor. Rev. Barnett presented a stirring challenge for Christianity, "Christ Our Hope."

Costumed ushers were Mrs. Art L. Moore as a migrant worker; Mrs. Adam Miller, sharecropper; Mrs. David F. Barnett Jr., student; Mrs. Raymond Hall, Sioux

Indian; Mrs. James W. Pinniger, Mexican; Mrs. Fred Goeller as a Chinese peasant. Each gave a prayer, indicative of their life station.

PROGRAM

Mrs. Earl Sheridan sang "Hear Thou My Prayer." Mrs. Kenneth Lambie read the impressive psalm of an Indian shepherd, written by a Navajo student at Cook Training School, Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Marvin Nersech sang "The Twenty-third Psalm." Malotte, Rev. Lloyd F. Holloway, Methodist Church, spoke briefly on the Community Council, proposed as a new organization in Klamath Falls.

Rev. Irwin Tweet, Klamath Lutheran Church spoke on "Prayer," discussing the great need for communication with God and offering suggestions on when and how to pray. Mrs. R. H. Reeves explained the use of offerings given during World Day of Prayer. Distribution is legion. Sharing are migrant workers, sharecroppers, American Indian tribes, interdenominational Christian Colleges for Women, in the Orient. Christian Literature publication for women and children around the World, foreign students who are assisted in academic work, Friendly Relations groups.

"Come Unto Me," a solo was sung by Mrs. Phil Hitchcock. Marvin Nersech, son of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nersech sang "If God So Clothes the Grass," Buschoff.

A playlet, "Mother Liberty's Children" was presented in costume by Hazel Morrison, "Mother Liberty." Mrs. Fred Karlson, whose ancestors came over on the Mayflower, Mrs. Irwin Tweet, an American Indian, Mrs. Ivan Riffey, a Negro clergyman; Mrs. Lawrence Birk, a Nurse; Mrs. John Yudson, a migrant woman; Mrs. Walter Herridon, an American with forebearers from the new Republic of India;

Mrs. Earl Redman, a foreign student from Lebanon.

Mrs. Elbert Veatch was organist for the morning session. Mrs. George McIntyre for the afternoon.

World Day of Prayer is held on the first Friday in Lent to promote the Christian Fellowship of prayer around the globe and the building of world brotherhood.

The next meeting of the Council of Church Women will be March 24th at the First Methodist church

MAYOR BOB THOMPSON presents awards to Mrs. Wesley McNeer Sr. (left) and Mrs. U. S. Balentine, completing classes in Arts and Crafts taught recently by Frank Staples, director for the National Recreation Association. Over 80 Klamath Basin women studied finger painting, knot braiding, sawdust modeling and spatter painting in classes sponsored by the Klamath Leader's Training Council and the Recreation Department. Those completing the work will in turn teach young people representing youth groups.

Green Beans Listed March Thrift Buy

Color, flavor and food value—all in one thrifty package—that's the way to look at canned green beans, says Miss Agnes Kolshorn, extension nutrition specialist at Oregon State college.

A variety of appetizing ways. Try cooking them with a dash of nutmeg, or a few leaves of savory, she suggests. Men approve of their hearty flavor when green beans are cooked with chopped bacon. Or put the beans under the broiler rack when broiling meats, where they will catch the meat drippings.

TRY BAKING Their color and flavor make green beans a "natural" for casserole dishes. For instance, bake them with sliced hard cooked eggs and a cheese sauce, topped with bread crumbs. Or try them with tuna fish and canned condensed cream of mushroom soup, baked with a grated cheese topping.

For a tasty winter salad, combine chilled, well-drained canned green beans with a salad dressing and chopped, cooked bacon, and serve on lettuce, shredded cabbage, or other greens. Old-fashioned vegetable soup, stew, and chowder may also be improved by adding green beans.

One Number 2 can of green beans provides four half-cup servings. They come in several pack styles, including the regular 1 1/2 inch cut, French style, also called sliced or julienne, meaning the beans are cut lengthwise into thin strips; jumble pack, in which the beans are packed whole but jumbled; and vertical or asparagus pack.

Wash drip cups and gratings in hot, detergent suds. Use stiff brush, mild abrasive or fine steel wool to remove dried residue.
