Mac's Name To Bus Upsets, Stay On List 21 Injured

ful Wednesday if F. E. Epton, Portland, who sponsored the petitions to put Gen. MacArthur's name on state Republican presidential ballot, would be allowed to withdraw MacArthur's name.

Gen. MacArthur, after his per-sonal request to state election of-licials to withdraw his name was genied, asked Epton to withdraw it But even if Epton decides to ask withdrawal, it looks like his re-quest would be turned down.

In his comion of two days ago.
Attorney General George Neuner ruled that MacArthur's name has to go on the ballet "unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court of the state of Oregon."

State election officials said that last phrase apparently would pre-clude Epton from withdrawing MacArthur's name.

RENO, Nev. (# — Skidding on ice at a sharp turn, a Burlington Trailways bus, with 41 persons aboard, overturned Wednesday injuring 21, four of them seriously.

Nevada Highway Patrolman Cliff Malone said it appeared the hig bus had hit a ditch and overturned three times before coming to rest on its wheels in a road-ide field.

The bus was en route from San Francisco to Chicago.

The most seriously injured pas-senger was Julia Abrams. 56, of Wadsworth. Ohio, who received head and rib injuries. She and three others were heavitalized.

The past week has been a busy one for three local women, includ-ing Mrs. Frank Strahan, Mrs. Jos-eph Hallford and Mrs. James Van ing Mrs. Frank Strahan, Mrs. Joseph Hallford and Mrs. James Van Wormer. On Monday, Tucaday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the trio attended art classes conducted in Klamath Falls by Frank Staples, national director of the National Recreation Association. While anyone interested was welcome, the instructive and educational sessions were held primarily for leaders of youth organizations, school and Sunday school teachers. The three Fort Klamath women learned much that will be useful in their local work. Mrs. Strahan is Fort Klamath's elementary school teacher as well as leader of the Horizon group of Camptire Girls and assistant leader of the Blue Birds, the younger division of Camptire Girls.
Mrs. Halford is den mother of the local Cub Scout pack, while Mrs.
Yan Wormer is leader of the Blue
Birds here.

Birds here.

On Saturday morning, Mar. 1.

Mrs. Strahan and Mrs. Van Wormer again went to Klamath Falls, where they were present at the meeting held at Peterson school for primary grade teachers of Klamath County. The two local Blue Bird leaders presented the following members of the group of little misses in a novel and amusing puppet show which was enjoyed by those attending the meeting: Darla Brewer, Gretchen Wilson, Helen Gay Hescock, Phyllis Woods, Barbara Nicholson and Barbara Vega.

On Friday afternoon, Feb. 29, the following women were guests at a silver ten given at the home of Mrs. Fred Markwardt in Chiloquin by the Women's Society of Chris-tain Service:-Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Harry Orem, little Gary and Anne Orem, Mrs. Raymond Loosley, Mrs. Ste-wart Nicholson, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and small to the hospital Friday morning. Feb. 29th.

The regular monthly meeting of the Civic Improvement Club will be held in the clubhouse on Friday afternoon, Mar. 7, at 2 o'clock sharp. That same evening, the monthly meeting of Fort Klamath Scout Fack 34, will be held at the clubhouse, when a special program and entertainment will feature the affair. Everyone is invited to attend the Scout meeting, those coming being asked to bring along a few sandwiches for the refreshment hour at the close of the evening, when coffee and sandwiches will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ridenhour and their three children returned Sunday from Bellingham, Wash., where they spent the winter months.

Spending Sunday at their Fort Klamath home were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe and family of Klamath Falls, where they have been living this winter while the McAuliffe boys attend Sacred Heart Academy.

Czechs Offer Oatis Trade

WASHINGTON (A)— Communist Czechoslovakia has hinted it might consider releasing William N. Oatis imprisoned Associated Press correspondent, in return for a 17 million dollar steel mill.

But the State Department, in acknowledging this Wednesday, said no actual offer has been made and "disposition of the steel mill is not and will not be connected with the Oatis case."

Last week his wife joined him and they were lucky enough to find a place in which to live. The family had contemplated a move to Eugene last year but at that time could not find a suitable house.

Joseph Mercer is planning to direct a three-act comedy to be put on next month for the benefit of the junior class and the Parent Teachers Association. Students are trying out for parts and adults will help with the staging and costuming. It will be the first dramatic production in the new gymnasium. Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin and Mrs. Richard Wilson of Fort Klamath spent Wednesday in Lakeview, attending a sub-district Womens Society of Christian Service meeting.

Applications are beginning to come in for the third annual amateur talent show which will be held in the new gymnasium on March 14 by the Altar Society of Mt.

The subcommittee has been considering a resolution by Sen. Benton (D.-Conn..) aimed at McCarthy's expulsion.

Sen. Gillette (D.Iowa), the subcommitteee chairman, told newsmen the vote to try for a showdown was a divided one.

He declined to break it down escept to say that he voted for the motion and that it was offered by Sen. Monroney (D.-Okla.).

Benton has accused McCarthy of unitiness for office for a variety of reasons, among them the manner in which he has pressed his charges of Communism in government. Septic Tanks Cleaned ROTO ROOTER SERVICE Cleans Sewer Lines of Roots, Etc ED P. KING 2434 Orchard Phone 9841
