Mayor Bob Thompson is in the middle. Both the main floor and the second floor of City Hall were remodeled, and the business offices moved to the FARM BUREAU WEEK brought this group of active Farm Bureau members together at the Winema hotel Monday. They are (I to r) Lloyd Hankins, John Kerns, Jack Wakefield, and Klamath County Farm Bureau Pres. E. E. Kilpatrick. Wakefield, OFBF field representative and manager of the OFBF Insurance Co., was special guest and speaker at the meeting, attended by members from throughout the Basin. The Klamath County Farm Bureau boasts 502 farm families in its membership.

AWAITS PROOF - Mrs. Mary McClelland (right) of San Pablo, Calif., and her husband, Everett, look over a telephoto of Mrs. McClelland when she was 17 and Anastasia Maroney (left), sister of Mary Agnes Maroney who was kidnaped from her parents in Chicago when she was twoyears-old. The trail came to a dead end in California. It was reopened with publication of Anastasia's picture which Mc-Clelland noticed to resemble his wife's photo. Mrs. McClelland said she is not getting her hopes up until she is positive that she has found her real parents.
