

Early Spring Wedding

THE BRIDE... resplendent in white satin... Mrs. John Patrick Hammond, the former Jean Margaret Keller.

CAUGHT IN A SHOWER of rice... the bride is sped on her way by new sister-in-law Dotty Mae Hammond, sister of the bridegroom.

DOWN THE AISLE... after the nuptial mass February 23, 10:30 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church... Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick Hammond.

THE TRADITIONAL blue garter... Mrs. Robert Horton, matron of honor assists the radiant bride.

"TO EACH OTHER"... the new Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick Hammond propose a toast at the reception in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

BEFORE THE CEREMONY... Martha Keller, bridesmaid, helps matron of honor Mrs. Robert Horton adjust their sister's veil.

All Wedding Photos by Juderian.

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

Engagements

MARJORIE ANN KING... attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almon J. King, Merrill Highway... who will be the August bride of Sam R. Redkey, son of Mrs. Effie Redkey and the late Stanley R. Redkey, 423 Conger Avenue. Both young people attended Southern Oregon College.

MARGARET MILLER BRUNDAGE... whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brundage, Storrs, Connecticut, announced her engagement to John L. Christie Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Christie Sr., Fairfield, Connecticut. "Peg", a graduate of the University of Connecticut, is a popular 4-H Club agent in Klamath County. Her fiance is a graduate of Yale, and for a time was identified with Weyerhaeuser Timber Company. At present he is taking further work in forestry at OSC. No wedding date has been set.

Photo by Ferbee

Hawaiian Holiday

RENEWING FRIENDSHIPS IN HONOLULU... and making many new acquaintances... kept the Clarence Wards busy while in the islands. From the left, Mr. and Mrs. John Herringshaw, Honolulu, formerly of Malin, Arline Akina, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward, Mrs. James Akina, who is a sister of Tony Correa, McCloud; and standing, Mr. Akina and the Akina's son, Jameson.

Lau Yee Chai Photo.

FROM the Klamath Basin... to Hawaii... and a special side trip to Kauai for fun at a pagent presented by members of the Wailua Mormon Church at historic Wailua heiau. From the left, Mrs. Henry Semon, Wally Ching, driver; Mrs. E. C. Lemler, Henry Semon, Mrs. Annie Andrade, Wailua; and E. C. Lemler.

Hawaii Visitors Bureau Photo.

Sun Valley Sojourn

AT THE WARMING HUT ON TOP OF BALDY MOUNTAIN... Sun Valley... Bob Adams, left, Lakeview, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Divens, 733 Alameda. Don, Marie and Bob had just met for a run down the mountain.