Fyock's To Double Space

Charles Fyock, operator of the appiliance and hardware store at 1001 Main St., has announced an expansion plan that will approximately double the firm's floor space. Most of the new space is to be devoted to a complete line of handware, Fyock said.

The firm has leased the next-door property formerly occupied by the Richard Fur Co. The wall separating the two store rooms is now being torn out.

now being torn out.

Fyock said he planned to put in a complete hardware stock, including power and hand tools. He also plans to greatly expand the firm's sporting goods line.

By moving the firm's present sizable hardware stock into the new space, the firm will be able to also greatly expand its appliance line.

ance line.

The remodeling work is expected to be completed about April 15.

Check the loops on the terry owels you buy. These loops should be close and thickly packed for absorbency.

Johnson Sees 'Place in Sun' As Top Oscar Award Movie

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively Yours: They're polishing up the Oscars for the 24th annual Academy Awards, March 20, and as my crystal ball sees it, there will be three places in the spotlight for "A Place In the Sun."
Paramount's remake of the Theodore Dreiser novel, "An American Tragedy," should win Hollywood's top 1951 awards for best motion picture, Shelly Winters' best performance by an actress and the direction of George Stevens.
The other awards:
Best actor: Arthur Kennedy in "Bright Victory" in a photo finish with Marlon Brando for his performance in "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Best supporting actress: Thelma Ritter in "The Mating Season" or Best supporting actress: Theima Ritter in "The Mating Season" or Kim Hunter in "A Streetcar Named Desire." Take your choice. Best supporting actor: Leo Genn in "Quo Vadis."

which Jane Wyman and Bing Crosby sang in "Here Comes the Groom."

Bing and Bob Hope finally got together on the scrip of "The Road to Ball," which the Groomer a few weeks ago was refusing to accept. But it took a two-hour conference with Bing, Bob, two lawyers and four agents. The script is due for a big re-write along Bing's ideas.

And speaking of Bing: His four-teen-year-old soon, Lindsay, is turning out to be a crack golfer. Playing with Bing Bob Crosby and Peter Lind Hayes, Lindsay shot an 87, "And." says Peter. "he had the best swing in the four-some."

ZSA ZSA'S LATEST

There's another crisis in the life of Zsa Zsa Gabor. She's refusing to make a scheduled guest appearance on Frank Sinatra's TV show unless she gets to okay the script. The producers of the show are refusing to guarantee her script approval and are threatening legal action if she falls to appear.
