Singer Bruised In Tough Scene

NEW YORK (AP)—Pretty Rise Stevens suffered a sprained arm Monday night when a vigorous scene in the opera carmen went amiss at the Metropolitan Opera house.

Tenor Mario del Monaco, singing the role of Don Jose, flung the mezzo-soprano away from him in the last act.

But, instead of hitting the floor according to the script, Miss Stevens smashed into a staircase.

Singing the title role, she finished the show seven minutes later and went to a hospital for x-rays.

Her right hand and lower arm were found to be sprained and were placed in a sling. A finger bone possibly was fractured.
