Hinkle Stays In Air Force

The Air Force has denied the request of Lt. Ernest Hinkle, The Dalles, for release and Hinkle announced today he would not be able to return to Oregon to campaign before the May 16 primary election. Hinkle is a Republican candidate for 2nd District Congressman, along with State Rep. Giles French of Moro and State Sen. Sam Coon of Baker. The 29-year-old Air Force officer is stationed in New York state. Although he will not be able to make a personal campaign prior to the primary election, Hinkle said he would make known in writing his views on every major issue. As a starter he took exception to the "economic aid" portion of the requested foreign aid appropriation in President Truman's 1952-53 budget. The economic aid request is for $1,800,000,000 and Hinkle said it should be vetoed by Congress. "The United States cannot support a world wide WPA," Hinkle told the Herald and News.

Air Lines To Accept CAB Orders

SEATTLE (AP) — West Coast Airlines has no plans to protest a Civil Aeronautics Board order eliminating some of its routes, an airline spokesman said Tuesday. Doug Billmeyer, public relations director, said Bellingham, Wash., is the only city directly affected although a temporary suspension of service to McMinnville, Ore., and Everett and Mount Vernon, Wash., approved by the CAB last July, is made permanent by the order. The CAB order, issued Monday, along with an operating certificate renewal good until Sept. 30, 1954, directed West Coast to discontinue the Seattle-Bellingham run and delete Port Townsend and Kelso, Wash., and McMinnville and Grants Pass, Ore., from its routes. Billmeyer said West Coast had never stopped at Port Townsend, Kelso and Grants Pass because suitable airports were not available. Stops at McMinnville, Everett and Mount Vernon were suspended because of insufficient freight and passenger traffic. Bellingham is served by United Air Lines, Billmeyer pointed out, and will not suffer from West Coast's withdrawal. The West Coast non-stop leg from Seattle to Port Angeles, Wash., is not affected by the CAB order. In renewing West Coast's operating certificate, the board disclosed it had considered suspending United Air Lines' service at Bellingham and at Salem, Bend, and Klamath Falls, Ore. but had decided against disturbing the operation. As a result of the decision, Billmeyer said, West Coast probably will not press to include Salem and Bend in its routes as originally planned. He said the CAB still is considering an application for extension of West Coast's Southern leg from Medford to Klamath Falls.

Parr's parents yesterday received a letter from the Air Force stating identification of the bodies in the crash was impossible and that a mass funeral would be held at St. Louis for all crew members killed. Date of the funeral was not revealed in the letter. Cpl. Parr, 21 was a 1949 graduate of Klamath Union High School. Before his death he had completed 22 missions over the Korean combat zone.
