NEW YORK (A — A few brief rallies and emphasis on a handful of stocks Tuesday marked a mixed session of the stock market.

The accent was largely on the downside, however, as the bulk of the offered leadership.

Gains were fractional in almost every case while losses spread out over a range that extended to around 2 points at the most.

Volume was restrited to an estimated 1,200,000 shares.

There was emphasis on a few issues, Northern Pacific was down sharply in early trading and then recovered. Union Pacific was off a small fraction in the forenoon and made a sharp recovery later.
