

Dusette, Pop Match Heads Armory Menu

Promoter Mack Lillard presents an attractive three-bout wrestling card at the armory tonight, starring Georges Dusette and Kurt Von Poppenheim in a main event rematch.

COWBOY CARLSON ... at armory tonight

The 8:30 opener pits popular Cowboy Carlson against Dr. Gallagher. The latter, an Ohio thirder, is making his debut in the Klamath Falls ring.

The semi-windup pairs Danno McDonald against Eric (The Great) Peterson, well-named Scandinavian.

Carlson and Gallagher warm the house in a one-fall, 20-minute scuffle. The semi-windup is a 45-minute scrap of the best two of three falls.

Dusette and Von Poppenheim have one hour in which to score two falls of three.

Von Poppenheim beat Dusette last week with a last-ditch bonhomie caper. The French-Canadian asked for the rematch and is out to end it early tonight.

Carlson is a favorite with the ladies who are expected to turn out in droves to welcome back the blond cowboy.

The armory ticket-office opens 7:30, one hour before the event.

Majors Slight Coast?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—All seemed serene on the surface Wednesday between the six Major League baseball teams training in the West and the Pacific Coast League.

But there is a strong suspicion that a little gentle knifing is going on behind the scenes and that the Coast League won a victory but lost a barrel of money.

The six Majors — the two Chicago clubs, the New York Giants, the St. Louis Browns, Cleveland and Pittsburgh — decided not to desert the West next spring and agreed to go along with the Coast League ban against playing each other in Coast League parks.

It is still all right for the Majors to play Coast League teams in any park — if they choose to.

It appears now that they don't so choose.

General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox, Spokesman for the Majors, disclosed that the 1953 exhibition schedule as it stands now lists only one Major-League game — if they choose to.

Later he said the Majors undoubtedly will schedule PCL competition, but will use their "B" teams — not the varsity.

The Coast League hung out the welcome sign for the Majors, but only if they could share in the handsome gate receipts with the Majors' starry teams.

Miss Faulk Is Medalist

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Mary Lena Faulk treasured her second successive North and South Tournament qualifying medal as she headed into Wednesday's opening round of match play along with 31 challengers.

Miss Faulk prevailed over 21 opponents to lead the way with a fine 37-38-75, one over women's par Tuesday. She was three strokes ahead of Miss Murray, Ruffland, Vt., and Mrs. Holbrook Platt of Pinehurst.

Miss Murray, runnerup last year to Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., was the top Curtis Cup performer of the qualifying round. Her Cup teammate, Miss O'Sullivan, won the last two years here, needed 81.

Miss Faulk was in the upper half of the draw.

The lower half listed, among others, Mrs. Platt, Miss DeMoss, Barbara Romack, Sacramento, Calif., and Edean Anderson, Helena, Mont.

SHUFF STUFF

The first playoff game of the City Shuffleboard League championship round is to be played tonight, 8 o'clock, on the Mecca board. The contestants are Mecca and Schuvs Tavern.

Second playoff game will be held Friday night on the Schuvs table, and the third, if necessary, will be played on a neutral board to be announced later.

Indians Hook Three Rookies

SPOKANE (AP)—The Spokane Indians signed three rookies for the 1952 Western International League baseball season Tuesday.

Owner Roy Hotchkiss said the new Indians are Walter Fisher, 23, Hawthorne, Calif.; Jose Hologuin, 22, Gardena, Calif.; and Sam Simmons, 19, Eagle Point, Ore.

Simmons, a shortstop, played winter ball in California. Hotchkiss said Fisher played infield and outfield positions with the San Diego Naval Air Station team last year, and Hologuin was catcher and outfielder for a semi-pro California team.

Slater Martin, pint-sized basketball star of the Minneapolis Lakers in the NBA, prefers to be called "Dugan" instead of Slater.

TIPS FROM OLD PRO—Lefty Gomez, somewhat stouter than when he was fogging 'em across for the New York Yankees some years ago, offers a bit of pitching advice to John Podres, touted rookie southpaw of the Dodgers.

CHEVS SET SCORE RECORD FOR AAU

DENVER (AP)—San Francisco's defending Champion Stewart Chevrolts set a new scoring record in leading 16 teams into Wednesday's second round of the National Amateur Athletic Union Basketball tournament.

The Californians slaughtered Santa Fe, N. Mex., 109-45. The previous high of 103 points was set by Phillips 66ers of Bartlesville, Okla., against Roanoke, Va., in the 1947 tourney. The Virginians scored 26 points.

San Francisco's nifty debut against the team of New Mexico school teachers and ex-college players caused tournament observers to rate the Stewarts even with Phillips and Oakland, Calif., the pre-meet co-favorites for the title.

All seeded teams have breezed through their opening games but competition toughens up Wednesday.

The champion Stewarts are matched against Portland, Ore., Panhandle Siding. The Portland team featuring Oregon collegiate stars, has won two tourney starts. They whipped Houston, Tex., Ada Oilers 67-53 Tuesday and the One Day Cleaners of Springfield, Ill., 72-54 Sunday.

Winner's Wednesday go into Thursday's quarter-final round. The quarter-final victors will qualify for the playoffs later this month in New York and Kansas

City to select the team to represent the U. S. in the Olympics this summer. Phillips was the 1949 representative.
