LOS ANGELES (A)-UCLA's battiling Bruins really were an em-batiled lot as, 14 strong, they en-planed Thursday for Corvallis, Ore, where they meet Santa Clara University Friday night in the NCAA Regional Basketball Tour-

Ore, where they meet Santa Clara University Friday night in the NCAA Regional Basketball Tourney.

Bruin Coach Johnny Wooden reminded his club that the Santa Clara coach, Bob Feerick was a much better team than UCLA and he was thankful his boys were facing the Bruins, rather than the Huskies.

UCLA thumped Washington two out of three to win the Pacific Coast Conference title, Wooden seldom had to give his boys a pep talk; in this instance Feerick has done the job.

Feerick was quoted as saying the Bruins had a 15-point advantage playing at home against Washington. The record shows that UCLA won only five of 13 games away from the home floor, but nearly all these losses were suffered before Wooden got his team clicking.

Tippy Dye, Washington coach, has picked UCLA and Wyoming to down UCLA in the championship go.

Wyoming plays Oklahoma City University Friday night in the second half of the first round double-header.

The Detroit Tigers also came up with some lusty hitting as they scalped the Boston Braves, 9-1, at Bradenton, Fla. Rookies Ben Taylor and Russ Sullivan pounded out three hits apiece to lead the attack.
