LEMON BAKED FISH

LEMON BAKED FISH
Lemons and fish have become as natural food partners as ham and eggs, bread and butter, baked beans and brown bread. Whether you eat it in a tea room, lunch counter or cafeteria, you'll be served this favorite combination—fish with a wedge of lemon on the side. Everyone likes the tangy flavor of fresh lemon with fish. At your house, you're probably serving fish often during lent — therefore, if you'd like to try a new variation of this combination, bake lemon slices on the fish. This way, you'll have added flavor because it is baked into the fish. Peel and slice a lemon, putting several slices on each piece of salmon (or other dry fish). Add salt and pepper, a little oil, or butter if desired and bake. That's all there is to it. When baked, the lemon is soft, juicy, and brings out a delicious flavor in the fish.

2 lemons, peeled and sliced
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup oil or butter
paprika

Place 1 pound of fish fillets or steaks in baking dish. Arrange lemon slices over the fish. Combine the salt, pepper, oil and paprika and pour over fish. Bake at 350 F. for 20 minutes or until fish is tender and flaky.

Civic Improvement Club Fort Klamath Holds Meet

FORT KLAMATH — Speaking to members of the Civic Improvement Club at the regular monthly meeting held Friday afternoon, March 7, in the clubhouse, Mrs. Don Veatch told of tentative plans for a Red Cross home nursing course which she will conduct here in the near future. Her talk also outlined several other worthwhile and valuable activities included in the program of the national organization.

BLV
Mrs. William Hartz was hostess for the March 13th meeting of the Bly Home Extension club. Purse making was taught to eleven members by Mrs. Lee Wingham and Mrs. Wynn Bates. Four purses were made.

Next year's program planning was discussed and a short business meeting was held.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee Wingham and the project, kitchen storage, is to be presented by Dorothy Tolleth, county agent.

OTI
A special meeting of the OTI Home Extension Unit was held at the home of Mrs. Winston Purvine, March 10.

Mrs. Delmar Jones and Mrs. E. E. Rogers, project leaders for April, passed out patterns and instruction for making purses.

After discussion of materials and selection of types of purses to be made, a stork shower was given to honor Mrs. Rogers. Canasta and games were played and refreshments served by Mrs. Purvine. Mrs. Carl Stolpe, Mrs. George Harper Jr. and Mrs. Earl Bairey.

charter member of the C. I. club, having joined at the time of its formation in 1924. At this meeting, the honored guest was given the status of honorary club member, a courtesy which is extended to all members on reaching the age of 70.

At the close of the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, with Mrs. William C. Hackler and Mrs. Marvin Roeder serving refreshments to the group. Despite the snow banked high, outside the clubhouse windows, a breath of spring was lent to the atmosphere of the interior by vases of yellow daffodils and pussy willows arranged in containers inside large, colorful handmade Indian baskets from the large and beautiful collection of Indian art owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hackler. The St. Patrick motif was used in table appointments and refreshments, with miniature umbrellas marking each place at the tables. A color scheme of green and white predominated.

Present for the afternoon were: Mrs. Fanny Bunch of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Don Veatch, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Don Sanders, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Frank Strahan, Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer; a special guest of the afternoon, Mrs. Jess Padou and small daughter, and the hostess Mrs. William C. Hackler and Mrs. Marvin Roeder.

In anticipation of the bazaar to be held this fall, the following women were appointed by the president to act as a finance committee: Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and Mrs. Harry Orem. These club members were authorized to purchase articles and material necessary for making needlework items, etc., in ample advance preparation for the big annual event given by the club.

A visitor welcomed at the meeting was Mrs. Fanny Bunch of Klamath Falls, a house guest at the home of her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Loosley. Mrs. Bunch, 76-year old Wood River valley pioneer, is a
