Palmer To Call Angus Sale Here

Red-nosed, jovial Walter Palmer, Los Angeles, has been selected an auctioneer for this year's Southern Oregon Angus Breeder's Association sale at the Fairgrounds April 20 and 21.

Alvin Cheyne, Klamath breeder, is chairman of the event, which includes a banquet at the Willard hotel the evening of the 20th.

To date, Cheyne reports, 85 head of Angus have been consigned to the sale. Included are cattle from leading herds throughout California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Catalogs may be obtained by writing to Harrison Cutler, Post-office Box 251, Napa, California.

Cheyne reported 40 registered females, 19 bulls and 35 commercials would go into the ring at the sale.

Chief Joseph Bids Made

SEATTLE — Nine contractors bidding jointly under the name of Columbia River Constructors submitted the apparent low offer Wednesday for a contract to build the intake and powerhouse section of Chief Joseph Dam.

Col. John P. Buehler, Seattle district engineer, said the bid, $39,749,007, was the lowest of three submitted. The government's fair cost estimate was $42,725,610.

The nine contractors were the Henry J. Kaiser, Co., Morrison-Knudsen Co., Inc., Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., General Construction Co., Macco Corp., Walsh Construction Co., B. Perini & Sons, Inc., MacDonald, Young & Nelson, Inc., and the Puget Sound Bridge & Dredging Co.

Use whatever fresh fruits are available — apples, bananas, oranges, grapefruit and fresh winter pears — and combine them with sweet meaty walnuts and a sour cream dressing for a wonderfully rich salad. Cut the fruits into bite-size pieces and bread or chop the walnuts into small pieces.
