

Tax On Longies Draws Protest

LONDON (AP)—A member of Parliament denounced a new tax on long underwear Thursday as unjust to Britons of a certain age and girth.

Demanding the withdrawal of the new levy, Laborite Norman Dodds said the hardy athletic type who wear shorts will go free while "outsize or elderly men" are forced to pay more for their longies.

SHE

LEAVES MEN

COLD

After a moment's pleased inspection, the average man would pass up this picture. But not the average woman! She sees what the man misses: a fascinating new accessory—the "glove stole." With hat to match!

No matter where she first picks up such news tidbits—about clothes, food, beauty, home decorating—only the newspaper has the answers to her questions "Where can I get it? For how much?"

So she watches the newspaper every day. Sometimes she has a definite purchase in mind—a new rug, or refrigerator, or top-coat for Daddy.

Often she simply has a mental drawer full of half-conscious wants—anything from a new frozen food to a folding terrace table.

Like men, women have found from experience that if they miss a single issue of the local paper, they miss something important.

Everybody makes that same discovery, very early in life. So everybody reads the newspaper... every day.

Why do advertisers spend more of their money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising?

Simply because everybody reads the newspaper, for its advertising as well as for fun or news.

So, why advertise only to fractions of the people who can buy?

Radio and TV programs reach only fractions of anybody's market—sport fans, home-makers, kids, or whatever. And even they can't all listen at the time a commercial is broadcast.

Magazines reach only fractions of a market. For each one appeals to some people—not to others.

The Newspaper talks to everybody in town. It's created fresh every day to appeal to everybody.

Only the newspaper is first with the most news... first with the most people... first with the most advertisers!

The newspaper is always "first with the most"
