Pay Up For State Asked

SALEM (AP)—State workers asked again Thursday for a pay boost. A 5 per cent increase was asked by the Oregon State Employees Association in a letter to the State Civil Service Commission. Association Secretary Forrest V. Stewart said 63 per cent of the state's employees quit last year because they were not getting enough pay.

Even more will quit now that spring work is opening up more jobs in private industry, he said. He said food costs have gone up 11 per cent since employees got their last increase in November, 1950.

The Association, which originally asked the increase three months ago, proposed that the boost be granted by moving each employe up two steps on the civil service scale.

Schubert To Lead Elks

John A. Schubert 2527 Bisbee, last night was elected the 1952-53 Exalted Ruler of Klamath Falls Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

He succeeds Jack Brandon of Weyerhaeuser, whose term expires this month.

Other lodge officers for the year chosen last night are:

Eston E. Balsiger, 1962 Manzanita, Leading Knight; L. A. Jack Murphy, 722 Doty, Loyal Knight; Ed Hickman, West Klamath, Lecturing Knight; G. W. (Bill) Houston, 630 Pine, secretary; Fred Glover, 224 High, Iller; Glen L. Evans, 227 Eldorado, trustee for five-year term; and Bert Hall, 812 S. 6th, alternate delegate to Grand Lodge.

Moscow Trip Called Off

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia businessman who wanted to attend an economic conference in Moscow so he could "drum up a little business" for his cotton import firm isn't going after all because of "loyalty and devotion" to the U.S. government.

S. Beryl Lush announced Thursday night he had canceled plans to go to Russia after Secretary of State Dean Acheson labeled the planned International Trade Conference in Moscow April 3 a Soviet creation to discredit the West.

Lush had been asked by the planners of the conference, headed by Oscar Lange, former Polish ambassador to the U. S., to gather a representative American participating group.

"I had been able to get some 10 businessmen and college professors—all capitalists—to go," Lush said, "but I don't think one American will be at the conference now."

"At least I won't. I've washed my hands of this entire affair. The state department suggests I shouldn't go—and I won't. I am a patriotic citizen and wouldn't do anything that might embarrass the U. S."

The 53-year-old Lush is head of Lush Cotton Products Co. which does about $2,000,000 a year business with Russia.

KOON TAKES TO AIR—Charlie Koon, University of Washington guard, goes into the air for a shot in the first half of the deciding game for the Pacific Coast Conference championship at Los Angeles. At left foreground is Washington Center Bob Houbregs. UCLA players are John Moore (32), Jack Davidson (72) and Barry Porter (71). Seconds before the half ended, with UCLA leading 33 to 31, Koon tied it up with a looping shot from 52 feet out but the Bruins went on to win 60 to 50.

Oregon's Elections Chief Nearing Retirement Time

By PAUL W. HARVEY JR.
 SALEM (AP)—Oregon's Voter's Pamphlet, that unique publication which gives every politician a chance to puff himself up all he wants to, goes into the mails next week.

With a circulation of 800,000 in 45 separate editions, the pamphlet is a tremendous job for the popular Irishman who has been doing it since 1915.

David O'Hara, chief clerk of the State Elections Division, is up to his ears in work, editing and supervising the pamphlet.

In fact, O'Hara was so busy last Monday he forgot it was St. Patrick's Day. He didn't have a bit of green on, which is an unpardonable sin for a loyal Irishman like O'Hara.

Dave, as everybody calls him, will be 65 years old next month. That's retirement age, but it would be hard to think of the Elections Bureau being run without "Mr. Elections" himself.

Since nobody knows the election laws like O'Hara does, his boss, Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry, probably will ask that Dave be kept beyond retirement age.

In the Voter's Pamphlet, every candidate gets a chance to put his picture, beliefs, history and platform before the voters. There are 45 editions in order to cut down the printing job, legislative candidates have their statements circulated only within their own districts.

It will cost $45,000 to get out the current number. The candidates paid $7,500 for space, leaving a deficit of $37,500. But O'Hara, and most other people, think it is well worth it.

"The pamphlet, including all printing, editing and postage, costs only 5.8 cents a copy. It's an educational periodical, and where else can you find an educational document so inexpensive?" O'Hara asks.

Dave is the censor of the pamphlet as the law bans libelous, obscene and defamatory matter, as well as matter which is prejudicial to any race or religion.

When he comes across such objectionable matter, he suggests to the candidate that he delete it. If he never runs into any trouble on that score.

Dave is a Republican, and you might think he would run into trouble with Democrats. He doesn't. Democrats are just as loud in their praise of Dave's fairness as the Republicans are.

He is extremely careful not to make mistakes in getting out the registered voter.

"Before I came here, the statement of a delegate to a national party convention from the state at large was left out of the pamphlet. It wasn't noticed until the pamphlet had been distributed and the candidate complained.

"The department had to print and mail separate copies of the statement to every voter of his party. The extra postage cost $4,000."

"That made me be very careful," O'Hara said.

O'Hara ranks at the top among Oregon's devoted public servants. He also is busy as a Salem city councilman is active in Catholic church affairs, and works hard in lodges and civic organizations.

The cost of space in the pamphlet varies from $100 a page for candidates for the big offices, down to $10 a page for legislative candidates.

Some candidates run just for the cheap advertising.

The best bargain is to run for presidential elector, costing $15 to file and $50 for a page in the pamphlet.

Where else could you get your name and free advertising before 300,000 or so party voters for only $65?

The Legislature makes the rules for the pamphlet, and decides the fees for space.

Next week Dave will have 12 to 15 girls busy addressing the pamphlets, the names coming from the county clerks' registration lists.

Soon Oregon's electorate will know what the candidates think of themselves.

"American in Paris" Takes Top Honor For Year's Film

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Humphrey Bogart, Vivien Leigh and "An American in Paris" won the principal Oscars Thursday night in Hollywood's annual Academy Awards Festival.

Bogart was an obvious sentimental selection for best actor award as the pin-loving skipper in "The African Queen." Miss Leigh was a pre-award favorite for the best actress Oscar for her portrayal of the famed beauty in "An American in Paris."

But the upset mood of the night in the Pantages Theater prevailed in the best picture award—"An American in Paris" was a dark horse. Most of the pre-award polls figured "Streetcar" as a runaway choice.

Karl Malden, the disillusioned lover of "Streetcar," won the award for the best supporting actor and Kim Hunter, the wife in "Streetcar," won the best supporting actress plum. They were favorites.

The biggest upset of the night was the victory for "American in Paris." Most experts figured it last in their selections. A good musical, it won his class in the same breath with "Streetcar" and "A Place in the Sun."

The musical also won Oscars in these categories:

Costume design, art direction, set (all these in color films), musical scoring, story-and-screenplay.

In addition to these, Gene Kelly, the picture's star, won an honorary award for his "brilliant achievements in the art of choreography on film."

The Irving Thalberg Memorial Award went to Producer Arthur Freed. Producer Darryl Zanuck said in presenting the two of Freed's pictures, "Shotboat" and "An American in Paris," are "perfect examples of creative art."

The one sure bet of the evening who came through was George Stevens who took the best direction award for his "A Place in the Sun."

In the Cool, Cool, Cool of the Evening, also a favorite, won the best song award for Composers Johnny Mercer and Hoagy Carmichael.

Nationals Draw Protest

LAKEVIEW (AP)—Treaty provisions between the United States and 10 other countries which permit nationals of those countries, on permanent residence in the United States, to be exempt from service in the armed forces were attacked by Lake County Post No. 53, American Legion, and Goose Lake Post No. 4079, Veterans of Foreign Wars in a joint resolution adopted this week.

On March 4 the Lake County draft board resigned in protest against the treaty provision, declaring that it is not fair to permit some men, although nationals of other countries but in the United States on permanent basis, to enjoy the privileges of this country without shouldering the responsibilities. They stated that they did not want to draft American boys and let others have special privileges.

The United States has unconditional treaties within 10 countries under which nationals of those countries, although in this country on a permanent resident visa, cannot be drafted. These countries are Argentina, Costa Rica, China, Ireland, Italy, Paraguay, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand and Yugoslavia. It was the exemption provisions of these treaties against which the resolution was aimed.

In addition, the United States had conditional treaties under which aliens cannot be drafted except in time of war, with nine other countries: Austria, El Salvador, Estonia, Germany, Honduras, Hungary, Latvia, Liberia and Norway.

Drive Eyes 50 Per Cent

Klamath County's Red Cross fund drive was expected to go over the 50 per cent mark today. Membership contributions totaling $11,800 were collected in yesterday put the campaign total at $11,800 or 48 per cent of the $25,000 goal.

In the race between the six divisions of the campaign, the Industrial Division, headed by O. K. Puckett, jumped into the lead with $3,246 of its $4,500 quota collected. That put Industrial at the 72 per cent mark, ahead of Advance Gifts (70 per cent) and Residential (69 per cent).

Earlier in the week, Advance Gifts, headed by Wes Lorenz, was knocked out of first place by Mrs. George Clark's Residential crew. And now both have been surpassed by Industrial.

Other divisions and their standing this morning: Special Groups, Carrol Howe and John Heyden, 59 per cent; Business, Roy Murphy, 41 per cent; and Rural, Herb Pollard and Jim Emmons, 8 per cent.

This year's drive continues to run ahead of last year's, with $1,800 more collected than at this same time last year.

Ridgway Has Say On Treaty

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese editors Friday reported Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway was "not upset" by the unfavorable comment of some Japanese on the Japan-U. S. security pact.

Ridgway met an hour and 40 minutes with four top Japanese newspaper executives. They were Nagatani Murayama, president of Asahi; Chikao Honda, president of Mainichi; Tsuneo Baba, former president and now consultant on Yomiuri, and Shoji Yasuda, Yomiuri's president.

Stories of the Ridgway interview appeared in all three papers. They all reported:

Ridgway told them the United States was not considering urging the Japanese to amend their constitution which bans rearmament. Ridgway opposed outlawing of the Communist Party in Japan. He said any such action would merely drive the Reds underground and serve no useful purpose.

Asked what he thought of reported opposition among many Japanese to the arrangements for stationing American troops in Japan, Ridgway replied:

"I am not upset. The critics in the U. S. Congress are even more outspoken.

"America does not seek an inch of Japanese soil, nor does it aspire to political domination of Japan. America is prepared to offer all her resources to defend freedom."

Lehmann Named Rodeo President

LAKEVIEW—Walter Lehmann Jr. will head the 1952 Lake County Round-Up as a result of an election held at a Round-Up meeting at Hotel Lakeview. He succeeds Don Hotchkiss.

The 33rd annual Round-Up will be held Labor Day weekend, Aug. 30, 31 and September 1.

Walter Lehmann Jr., father of the new Round-Up president, headed the show in 1926 and 1927.

Trial Still Needs Jury

CRESCENT CITY, Calif. (AP)—The third panel of prospective jurors for the murder trial of two McMinnville, Ore., brothers was to be called Friday to select two alternate jurors.

The two were needed to complete a jury to hear the trial of Richard L. Jones, 28, and his brother, 20. They are charged with killing Felix Molini, 58, in a holdup of his shoe repair shop.

The regular 12 jurors were seated Thursday night.

The panel of 25 veniremen called for Friday makes a total of 175 summoned in the first week of the trial.
